HELD IN OIL MAP THEFTS — These four men are under FBI arrest in New York in thefts of 30 maps of rich oil lands from Gulf Oil company. The arrests came about after Gulf noticed its secret oil lands were being leased by wildcat operators. Gulf hired detectives. An employe who got in the hole gambling, it turned out, was paying off with the maps. Odie Seagraves, 60, is from New York and Houston, Tex., reportedly a former multimillion-dollar oil promoter; Emanuel Lester, 32, New York, was convicted for attempted extortion on Serge Rubinstein, who was murdered several years ago. The others held are John Leivia, 34, Orange, Tex.; Edward Lieberman, 30, Lester's brother, in whose office and warehouse some of the maps were recovered.

Austria Told U. S. To Give All Aid Possible

Eisenhower Message On Refugee Problem Delivered by Nixon

VIENNA (AP) — President Eisenhower today promised the United States would do everything in its power to help solve the problem created by hordes of Hungarian refugees crowding Austria and still crossing through the Iron Curtain to freedom.

The President's promise was contained in a letter delivered by Vice President Richard M. Nixon to Austrian Chancellor Julius Raab shortly before the American official set out on a visit to refugee camps not far from the Border.

A high official source said Nixon believes the United States should admit more Hungarians. Eisenhower has ordered 21,500 admitted by the end of the year. He had raised the figure from 5,000.

Eisenhower in his letter to Raab said Nixon was acting as his personal representative in an effort to find a solution of a problem which had deeply touched the American people—the flight of more than 140,000 Hungarians in search of protection.

* * *

NIXON, THE President went on, will study the living conditions of the refugees in Austrian camps and talk with responsible Austrian officials in an effort to find the full extent of the problem and recommend further steps by the United States.

Nixon saw Raab briefly to deliver the letter shortly after he had paid his respects to Austrian President Theodor Koerner.

After his round of courtesy visits, Nixon was driven to Burgenland Province only 10 miles from where the Hungarians are crossing into this country.

Nixon said on his arrival that he hoped "to obtain as accurate information as is possible under the circumstances as to the number of refugees the United States should be prepared to receive."

He added that we "are fully determined to do our full share in meeting the needs which have grown out of the refugee problem."

Austrian officials not only want the United States to take more of the refugees straining the facilities of this little country but also want Washington to give additional financial aid for those who remain. About 70,000 refugees are believed still in Austria and from 500 to 1,000 are still arriving daily.

French Premier Still Says Invasion of Egypt Necessary

PARIS (AP)—Premier Guy Mollet declared today the motives which compelled British and French action in the Middle East "are as compelling today as yesterday."

In a speech to the National Assembly the premier defended the British - French action on the grounds of Soviet penetration into the Middle East.

"Its penetration was not noisy, but was thus the deeper and prepared dangerous tomorrows for the West," Mollet declared.

As for the Israel attack on Egypt, Mollet said that from the day the Arab nations agreed to join military command under Egypt, Israel was encircled.

"Is it necessary to wait for the irreparable?" Mollet asked.

Referring to the United Nations, Mollet said that if Israel had been crushed "we would have wept over Israel destroyed as we weep hopelessly over martyrized Hungary."

The premier said the Atlantic alliance remained one of the bases of French foreign policy "as it was at the moment of my investiture." He added:

"Whatever may have been our differences with our American allies, the Atlantic alliance has never been in question. I know that President Eisenhower and the American government attach the same importance to it."

Meanwhile, in Cairo, Egypt, the United Nations information office announced that plans are now ready to start clearing the Suez Canal of sunken ships immediately after "E Day"—when British-French forces are evacuated from Port Said.

The Canal has been blocked since Oct. 31. Egypt has insisted that no work be done on removing the blocks until after the British and French leave.

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold is reported to have recruited a force of 31 Danish, Dutch, German, Italian and Belgian ships, together with 600 crewmen, divers and salvage experts to undertake the operation.

Matron, 50, Is Held as Embezzler

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Embezzlement of nearly $50,000 over six years from a loan company here today was laid against its cashier, Mrs. Cora Zidan, a mild-mannered matron of 50.

Mrs. Zidan, who authorities said signed a statement that she took the money, remarked afterward: "I don't know why I did it. I didn't want to do it, but I got started and couldn't quit."

She was employed by the Denver Discount Co. and Allied Credit Corp., a joint firm. She had worked for the company 10 years. Her salary was $240 a month.

After arraignment, she was released under $2,500 bond.

Ray Humphreys, an investigator for the district attorney's office, disclosed the following:

Mrs. Zidan admitted taking $48,000 to $50,000 at the rate of $10,000 a year until last month, when a fellow employe questioned her records.

Mrs. Zidan told investigators she took money from the cash drawer and replaced it with checks received in the mail as home mortgage payments. She said familiarity with the operations of auditors enabled her to adjust her accounts before the books were checked.

Ike To Light Tree At Rites Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will press a button at nightfall to light a 67-foot national community Christmas tree.

Signaling the beginning of the Yule observance, Eisenhower also will speak to the nation briefly at 5:15 p. m. EST over CBS radio and ABC radio and television.

Mrs. Eisenhower planned to join the President in the annual ceremony on the White House grounds. The Eisenhowers plan to spend Christmas Day at the White House.

Cypriots Strongly Reject Limited Self-Rule Offers

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — More than 1,000 high school students demonstrated today against Britain's offer of limited self-rule to rebellious Cyprus. Leaders of the island colony's Greek majority and Turkish minority firmly rejected the proposal.

Police and British military patrols broke up the demonstration in Famagusta. They said the 17-year-old leader of the march was wounded in the shoulder when he ran after being ordered to halt.

Twenty-three of the boys and girls were marched off to the police station.

Despite the general opposition on Cyprus, constitutional proposals did open the way for a resumption of talks between Britain and Archbishop Makarios, exiled leader of the Greek Cypriots.

Cyprus' Greek-origin residents, about four-fifths of the 500,000 population, insist that Makarios is the only person with whom Britain can negotiate.

Britain deported the high Greek Orthodox churchman to the Seychelle Islands in the Indian Ocean last March, charging him with directing the campaign of violence waged since 1954 against EOKA underground. Makarios was the leader of the Greek-Cypriot drive for independence of Cyprus and eventual union with Greece.

Two British representatives were to meet with the archbishop today to explain Britain's new proposal for a constitution.

Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd, announcing the offer in the House of Commons in London, emphasized that the talks with Makarios were to be "consultations" and not "negotiations."

There was speculation the new British proposals and the talks with Makarios might be opened a way for his release. British leaders have said he can win his freedom by denouncing the use of force in politics.

The British proposals met the sharpest rejection from Greek Cypriot leaders and from the Greek government because they did not set a date for granting self-determination for Cyprus. It is considered certain that such a plebiscite would find the Greek majority making the island a political part of Greece.

Postmen Toss Out Buzzing Package

TOLEDO (AP)—A gaily-wrapped Christmas package was moved quickly from the postoffice to an alley Wednesday after parcel handlers heard it buzzing.

While demolition experts were being summoned to look at what some people thought was a bomb, up the alley came street cleaner Joseph Kinczeyk, 67.

To Kinczeyk, the box was litter and he proceeded to take it apart. Inside, he found a battery-powered hand vacuum sweeper, its motor apparently started by a bump.

Postoffice personnel said the package would be delivered.

Ishibashi, 72, New Premier Of Japanese

TOKYO (AP) — Tanzan Ishibashi, 72-year-old new president of the Liberal - Democratic party, was elected prime minister of Japan today. He advocates continued cooperation with Western countries, but more trade with Communist China.

Ishibashi succeeds Ichiro Hatoyama, who resigned with his Cabinet earlier today in preparation for the vote in the House of Representatives. The lower house of the Japanese Diet gave Ishibashi 291 votes to 150 for Mosaburo Suzuki, leader of the opposition Socialist parth.

Hatoyama, 73, retired as Liberal-Democratic leader Dec. 14 because of bad health. He said his two years in office had achieved his two major goals: reopening diplomatic relations with Russia and the admission of Japan to the United Nations.

Twenty-six members of the Diet's 467-member lower house were absent when today's vote was taken. Among them was Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu, now in New York where he went to attend Japan's U. N. induction.

Shigemitsu, a former prime minister, submitted his resignation along with the rest of Hatoyama's Cabinet. He is believed out of the running for the Foreign Ministry in the new government.

Ishibashi, son of a Buddhist priest, is Japan's sixth prime minister since World War II. He is an economist and journalist who has had a stormy career since he entered politics after the war.

Vaccine-Loaded Truck Is Sought

NEW YORK (AP) — Police maintained an all-state alarm today for a stolen tractor-trailer loaded with damaged vaccines and antitoxins.

The truck and contents disappeared Wednesday from a Manhattan loading platform.

The drugs were part of a shipment from Lederle Laboratories, Pearl River, N. Y., to its Chicago branch office. The truck carrying them caught fire and 730 cartons out of 2,709 were damaged.

The Chicago office was returning the damaged cartons to Pearl River, where they were to be destroyed. The drugs included diphtheria antitoxins, tetanus toxoid, and vaccines for typhoid.

Ike-Nehru Talks Said Big Success

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials said today the talks between Indian Prime Minister Nehru and President Eisenhower have been a big success from the American point of view.

Nehru himself appeared pleased with the results. The formal talks between the two men ended Wednesday. Wednesday night Nehru gave a state dinner at the Indian Embassy for the President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

Most U. S. officials credited Eisenhower with apparent success in convincing Nehru that the United States is not following a rigid foreign policy but is prepared to make adjustments as developments demand.

Nehru made this point Wednesday when he told a news conference U. S. policy is "flexible" and not as rigid as he had thought.

Asked specifically whether he regarded such flexibility as applying to the policy of nonrecognition of Red China and blocking Red Chinese membership in the United Nations, Nehru replied that he could not give a "yes" or "No" answer.

* * *

THERE APPEARS to be no doubt that in their private talks Eisenhower and Nehru debated the Red China issue thoroughly and that Nehru repeated that Red China is a reality. He told newsmen the Nationalist Chinese government of Chiang Kai-shek should not be considered to be more than the government of Formosa. Formal U. S. policy holds that the Chiang government is the legal government for all China.

Nehru's basic position of neutrality or "nonalignment," as he calls it, remains unchanged. Diplomatic authorities said there had been no effort by either him or Eisenhower to persuade the other to take a different line.

One evidence of a better understanding by Nehru of U. S. policy was found in what he said about disarmament. He declared that the "first necessity" is to create confidence, obviously meaning mutual confidence between the United States and Russia.

That makes it essential, he declared, to have agreement on arrangements for an inspection system. This is very close to the Eisenhower view.

At another point, the Indian prime minister said he did not think it proper to call Soviet control of Eastern European countries "colonialism." He apparently reserves that term to mean European domination of Asian or African areas. Nehru went on to say he thought it clear that Russia has exercised a "dominating influence" over the satellites, as shown in the Hungarian revolt.

16 Runaway Cars Ram Into Mail Train

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Sixteen runaway freight cars plowed into a mail train Wednesday night and a diesel engine and three of the freight cars tumbled 15 feet into a downtown parking lot.

The engine's fireman was killed. Two other railroaders were hurt.

The runaway cars, all loaded, raced four miles down a grade before ramming the mail train, which was entering the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot.

Firemen Thomas Hale, 56, Syracuse, died in a Syracuse hospital a few hours after being removed from the wreck of the diesel.

The accident occurred at the height of an early-evening, Christmas shopping rush.

At least 10 automobiles in the crowded parking lot were crushed under the engine and freight cars.

Six other freight cars were scattered about the tracks.

The diesel engine had been pushing four mail cars into the depot. A policeman estimated the freight cars were traveling 70 miles an hour when they hit the mail train.

R. W. Jones, superintendent of the Scranton Division of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, said reports would be sought from six men who had been switching freight cars at sidings outside the city. Jones said "somehow the 16 got loose."

Burglars Get Merchandise, Papers, Money

Officers of the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation spent most of Thursday going over the Charles Theobald store at the intersection of the Leesburg and Sabina-Greenfield roads, looking for clues following a break in there sometime last night.

Sheriff Orland Hays was called to the store at 7:45 a. m. Thursday when the front door glass was found broken to gain entrance.

He said his preliminary investigation showed the store had been ransacked from front to back and left a shambles.

The door of the safe, he said, had been left unlocked, but the doors to several small compartments in it had been pried open, probably with what is commonly known as a "jimmie".

* * *

SEVERAL metal boxes, in which valuable papers were kept, had been taken from the safe compartments and carried away by the burglars, he said. The papers in the boxes were described as valuable to Theobald, but to no one else. The sheriff added that it was

Prison Terms Without Trial Being Ordered

BUDAPEST (AP) — The Russian-backed Hungarian government has re-established the dreaded interment system under which thousands of people were jailed without trial during the Stalin era.

A decree issued by the presidential council said that "persons whose activity or behavior endangers public order, especially production, can be placed under detention of public security."

The maximum detention period was set at six months.

Special significance is attached to the portion of the decree which specifies that anyone who interferes with production can be interned without trial. This gives Premier Janos Kadar's regime a legal weapon for breaking any kind of strike. The government still has in jail two leaders of the Budapest Central Workers' Council who ordered a two - day general strike last week.

* * *

BECAUSE OF a severe shortage of coal and power, the Kadar government has cut work in the steel and machine building industries to three days a week. Simultaneously thousands of idle factory workers were ordered to public construction projects to rebuild homes and business buildings damaged during the anti-Russian revolt.

The present condition is one of creeping paralysis through the country's industry. But peace appeared to be settling over the troubled country.

Kadar was quoted by the Communist East Germany news agency ADN as telling Eastern bloc correspondents in Budapest that his forces are getting strong enough to suppress rebellion without Russian assistance.

In Russia today, too, there was evidence that the Red iron fish was squeezing anew. The government of the area called the Russian Federation, which includes the capital city of Moscow, announced a crackdown on hooliganism."

The federation published a decree providing for the arrest and imprisonment ranging from three to five days of persons committing such acts as violation of public order, insulting disrespect, use of bad language, and other public misbehavior.

In Communist parlance, hooliganism is a flexible term which may cover disorders ranging from rowdyism to political demonstrations.

There have been reports of disorders within Russia in recent weeks simultaneous with Soviet intervention in Hungary and Poland's assertion of independence from Moscow control.

Indiana Eccentric Is Mum On Reasons for Shootings

ANGOLA, Ind. (AP)—Police made another attempt today to question a 40-year-old eccentric blamed for shootings in nearby Ray with a rifle and a revolver that left three persons dead, two wounded.

Two of the victims were not found until about 18 hours after they were shot. Police checking reports of neighborhood grudges found the bodies of Fred Peterson, 53, and his son, Ronald, 24, in their home Wednesday afternoon. They were killed with .45 caliber revolver bullets.

A 48-year-old farmhand, Mervin Forrester, had been found dead in the doorway of his home after the shooting spree Tuesday night. He had rifle bullets in the head and chest.

Merlin McNaughton, who never had caused serious trouble before, was held without charge. State police said he had been crazed by an obsession that "everybody in Ray was out to get him."

McNaughton was described as an intelligent man who quoted scripture.

* * *

HE SAT IN his cell mumbling and would give no explanation of the shooting, Sheriff Harry Dirrim said. He called McNaughton a "mental case," although he never had received treatment. The sheriff also said there had been "unfriendly feeling" in the neighborhood.

Also wounded in the Tuesday night shooting were Preston Bradley, 38-year-old foundryman, and his wife, Nancy, 38. Bradley was in good condition in Cameron Hospital here, and Mrs. Bradley was listed in "fairly good condition" after surgery in Fort Wayne.

The Bradley's 4-year-old daughter, Cathy, taken from their bed and found with McNaughton when he surrendered in his own home, was unharmed.

The Petersons apparently had been killed just after Forester was shot, and before the Bradleys were wounded and their daughter abducted.

When he surrendered, McNaughton was wearing pillows strapped to his chest and back. Neighbors said he had worn them more than two years, afraid he would be shot and saying they would "keep the bullets from hurting."

Forrester lived across the street from McNaughton in a house owned by McNaughton. The Petersons lived next door to McNaughton, and the Bradleys lived in the same block.

Neighbors said McNaughton had never worked but lived on the income from his property, inherited from his father.

Wife-Kidnaper Held in Denver

California Escapee, 16, Bride Hurt in Crash

DENVER (AP)—An escaped California mental patient who kidnaped his teen-age bride at gunpoint was captured in Denver early today after a roaring police chase through deserted streets.

Mike Wiegner, 16, and his bride, Clo Ann Mowatt Wigner, 17, were in a Denver hospital for injuries suffered when the fleeing kidnap car hurtled into a West Denver gulch. Mrs. Wiegner was on the critical list from a possible skull fracture and internal hurts. Wiegner suffered scalp wounds.

Police squads prowled the city looking for a scar-faced Indian named Jesse Eastman, alias Jesse Red Cloud, 35, who Wiegner said made the trip from California with him.

A .22 caliber rifle was found in the smashed escape car. Eastman, apparently not seriously hurt, fled in the darkness. Police said they did not know if he was armed.

The Indian, known also as "Chief" was described by Wiegner as "gun-happy."

* * *

IT WAS A WILD ending to a romance which began last month when Clo Ann and Mike eloped to Montana and were married. When they returned to California, the girl was placed temporarily in a juvenile home and Wiegner in Napa State Hospital as a mental patient. Later, the girl was returned to her parents at Daly City, near San Francisco.

Last Monday Wiegner, declared a problem child at 14, broke out of Napa State Hospital and went to Daly City. Brandishing a gun, he took Clo Ann from the home.

Thug Sought In Akron Is Shot by Cops

NEW YORK (AP)—A gunman reportedly wanted in Akron, Ohio, on homicide charges was taken to a hospital with five police bullets in him Wednesday after shooting a New York taxi driver in an attempted holdup, police reported.

Police identified him as Leroy Keith, 42, a Negro, said to be wanted in Akron on three homicide charges.

Keith, and James T. Morris, 22, of Riverhead, N. Y., were captured after trying to rob David Suro, 47, of the Bronx. They got into Suro's cab, police said, and ordered him to drive them uptown.

Suro deliberately drove into a cruising police car. As the two gunmen tried to escape, police said, Keith fired a shot into Suro's chest. He was reported in serious condition.

Police fired five shots into Keith after he shot at them from under a parked car. Morris was uninjured.

Ishibashi, 72, New Premier Of Japanese

TOKYO (AP) — Tanzan Ishibashi, 72-year-old new president of the Liberal - Democratic party, was elected prime minister of Japan today. He advocates continued cooperation with Western countries, but more trade with Communist China.

Ishibashi succeeds Ichiro Hatoyama, who resigned with his Cabinet earlier today in preparation for the vote in the House of Representatives. The lower house of the Japanese Diet gave Ishibashi 291 votes to 150 for Mosaburo Suzuki, leader of the opposition Socialist parth.

Hatoyama, 73, retired as Liberal-Democratic leader Dec. 14 because of bad health. He said his two years in office had achieved his two major goals: reopening diplomatic relations with Russia and the admission of Japan to the United Nations.

Twenty-six members of the Diet's 467-member lower house were absent when today's vote was taken. Among them was Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu, now in New York where he went to attend Japan's U. N. induction.

Shigemitsu, a former prime minister, submitted his resignation along with the rest of Hatoyama's Cabinet. He is believed out of the running for the Foreign Ministry in the new government.

Ishibashi, son of a Buddhist priest, is Japan's sixth prime minister since World War II. He is an economist and journalist who has had a stormy career since he entered politics after the war.

Vaccine-Loaded Truck Is Sought

NEW YORK (AP) — Police maintained an all-state alarm today for a stolen tractor-trailer loaded with damaged vaccines and antitoxins.

The truck and contents disappeared Wednesday from a Manhattan loading platform.

The drugs were part of a shipment from Lederle Laboratories, Pearl River, N. Y., to its Chicago branch office. The truck carrying them caught fire and 730 cartons out of 2,709 were damaged.

The Chicago office was returning the damaged cartons to Pearl River, where they were to be destroyed. The drugs included diphtheria antitoxins, tetanus toxoid, and vaccines for typhoid.

Ike-Nehru Talks Said Big Success

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials said today the talks between Indian Prime Minister Nehru and President Eisenhower have been a big success from the American point of view.

Nehru himself appeared pleased with the results. The formal talks between the two men ended Wednesday. Wednesday night Nehru gave a state dinner at the Indian Embassy for the President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

Most U. S. officials credited Eisenhower with apparent success in convincing Nehru that the United States is not following a rigid foreign policy but is prepared to make adjustments as developments demand.

Nehru made this point Wednesday when he told a news conference U. S. policy is "flexible" and not as rigid as he had thought.

Asked specifically whether he regarded such flexibility as applying to the policy of nonrecognition of Red China and blocking Red Chinese membership in the United Nations, Nehru replied that he could not give a "yes" or "No" answer.

* * *

THERE APPEARS to be no doubt that in their private talks Eisenhower and Nehru debated the Red China issue thoroughly and that Nehru repeated that Red China is a reality. He told newsmen the Nationalist Chinese government of Chiang Kai-shek should not be considered to be more than the government of Formosa. Formal U. S. policy holds that the Chiang government is the legal government for all China.

Nehru's basic position of neutrality or "nonalignment," as he calls it, remains unchanged. Diplomatic authorities said there had been no effort by either him or Eisenhower to persuade the other to take a different line.

One evidence of a better understanding by Nehru of U. S. policy was found in what he said about disarmament. He declared that the "first necessity" is to create confidence, obviously meaning mutual confidence between the United States and Russia.

That makes it essential, he declared, to have agreement on arrangements for an inspection system. This is very close to the Eisenhower view.

At another point, the Indian prime minister said he did not think it proper to call Soviet control of Eastern European countries "colonialism." He apparently reserves that term to mean European domination of Asian or African areas. Nehru went on to say he thought it clear that Russia has exercised a "dominating influence" over the satellites, as shown in the Hungarian revolt.

16 Runaway Cars Ram Into Mail Train

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Sixteen runaway freight cars plowed into a mail train Wednesday night and a diesel engine and three of the freight cars tumbled 15 feet into a downtown parking lot.

The engine's fireman was killed. Two other railroaders were hurt.

The runaway cars, all loaded, raced four miles down a grade before ramming the mail train, which was entering the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot.

Firemen Thomas Hale, 56, Syracuse, died in a Syracuse hospital a few hours after being removed from the wreck of the diesel.

The accident occurred at the height of an early-evening, Christmas shopping rush.

At least 10 automobiles in the crowded parking lot were crushed under the engine and freight cars.

Six other freight cars were scattered about the tracks.

The diesel engine had been pushing four mail cars into the depot. A policeman estimated the freight cars were traveling 70 miles an hour when they hit the mail train.

R. W. Jones, superintendent of the Scranton Division of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, said reports would be sought from six men who had been switching freight cars at sidings outside the city. Jones said "somehow the 16 got loose."

Burglars Get Merchandise, Papers, Money

Officers of the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation spent most of Thursday going over the Charles Theobald store at the intersection of the Leesburg and Sabina-Greenfield roads, looking for clues following a break in there sometime last night.

Sheriff Orland Hays was called to the store at 7:45 a. m. Thursday when the front door glass was found broken to gain entrance.

He said his preliminary investigation showed the store had been ransacked from front to back and left a shambles.

The door of the safe, he said, had been left unlocked, but the doors to several small compartments in it had been pried open, probably with what is commonly known as a "jimmie".

* * *

SEVERAL metal boxes, in which valuable papers were kept, had been taken from the safe compartments and carried away by the burglars, he said. The papers in the boxes were described as valuable to Theobald, but to no one else. The sheriff added that it was

Warren Countian Killed in Crash

LEBANON (AP)—John F. Newell, 46, of Pleasant Plain, Warren County, was killed instantly today when his auto collided with a Baltimore & Ohio freight train 14 miles south of here.

Coroner Ralph Young reported that Newell, driving in rain and fog, hit the 14th car of the freight train at Rossburg road crossing.

Prison Terms Without Trial Being Ordered

BUDAPEST (AP) — The Russian-backed Hungarian government has re-established the dreaded internment system under which thousands of people were jailed without trial during the Stalin era.

A decree issued by the presidential council said that "persons whose activity or behavior endangers public order, especially production, can be placed under detention of public security."

The maximum detention period was set at six months.

Special significance is attached to the portion of the decree which specifies that anyone who interferes with production can be interned without trial. This gives Premier Janos Kadar's regime a legal weapon for breaking any kind of strike. The government still has in jail two leaders of the Budapest Central Workers' Council who ordered a two - day general strike last week.

* * *

BECAUSE OF a severe shortage of coal and power, the Kadar government has cut work in the steel and machine building industries to three days a week. Simultaneously thousands of idle factory workers were ordered to public construction projects to rebuild homes and business buildings damaged during the anti-Russian revolt.

The present condition is one of creeping paralysis through the country's industry. But peace appeared to be settling over the troubled country.

Kadar was quoted by the Communist East Germany news agency ADN as telling Eastern bloc correspondents in Budapest that his forces are getting strong enough to suppress rebellion without Russian assistance.

In Russia today, too, there was evidence that the Red iron fish was squeezing anew. The government of the area called the Russian Federation, which includes the capital city of Moscow, announced a crackdown on hooliganism."

The federation published a decree providing for the arrest and imprisonment ranging from three to five days of persons committing such acts as violation of public order, insulting disrespect, use of bad language, and other public misbehavior.

In Communist parlance, hooliganism is a flexible term which may cover disorders ranging from rowdyism to political demonstrations.

There have been reports of disorders within Russia in recent weeks simultaneous with Soviet intervention in Hungary and Poland's assertion of independence from Moscow control.

Mother Is Freed In Slaying Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—A pretty, 25-year-old mother who fatally shot her husband alternately wept and smiled her relief Wednesday night when a jury found her innocent of a first degree manslaughter charge.

Rising from her chair, Mrs. Kathryn Trosper hugged defense attorney A. H. Dudnik who presented her argument that she shot her husband in self defense.

Mrs. Trosper, who was six months pregnant at the time, testified her husband had punched her in the stomach and threatened to kill her.

Indiana Eccentric Is Mum On Reasons for Shootings

ANGOLA, Ind. (AP)—Police made another attempt today to question a 40-year-old eccentric blamed for shootings in nearby Ray with a rifle and a revolver that left three persons dead, two wounded.

Two of the victims were not found until about 18 hours after they were shot. Police checking reports of neighborhood grudges found the bodies of Fred Peterson, 53, and his son, Ronald, 24, in their home Wednesday afternoon. They were killed with .45 caliber revolver bullets.

A 48-year-old farmhand, Mervin Forrester, had been found dead in the doorway of his home after the shooting spree Tuesday night. He had rifle bullets in the head and chest.

Merlin McNaughton, who never had caused serious trouble before, was held without charge. State police said he had been crazed by an obsession that "everybody in Ray was out to get him."

McNaughton was described as an intelligent man who quoted scripture.

* * *

HE SAT IN his cell mumbling and would give no explanation of the shooting, Sheriff Harry Dirrim said. He called McNaughton a "mental case," although he never had received treatment. The sheriff also said there had been "unfriendly feeling" in the neighborhood.

Also wounded in the Tuesday night shooting were Preston Bradley, 38-year-old foundryman, and his wife, Nancy, 38. Bradley was in good condition in Cameron Hospital here, and Mrs. Bradley was listed in "fairly good condition" after surgery in Fort Wayne.

The Bradley's 4-year-old daughter, Cathy, taken from their bed and found with McNaughton when he surrendered in his own home, was unharmed.

The Petersons apparently had been killed just after Forester was shot, and before the Bradleys were wounded and their daughter abducted.

When he surrendered, McNaughton was wearing pillows strapped to his chest and back. Neighbors said he had worn them more than two years, afraid he would be shot and saying they would "keep the bullets from hurting."

Forrester lived across the street from McNaughton in a house owned by McNaughton. The Petersons lived next door to McNaughton, and the Bradleys lived in the same block.

Neighbors said McNaughton had never worked but lived on the income from his property, inherited from his father.

Wife-Kidnaper Held in Denver

California Escapee, 16, Bride Hurt in Crash

DENVER (AP)—An escaped California mental patient who kidnaped his teen-age bride at gunpoint was captured in Denver early today after a roaring police chase through deserted streets.

Mike Wiegner, 16, and his bride, Clo Ann Mowatt Wigner, 17, were in a Denver hospital for injuries suffered when the fleeing kidnap car hurtled into a West Denver gulch. Mrs. Wiegner was on the critical list from a possible skull fracture and internal hurts. Wiegner suffered scalp wounds.

Police squads prowled the city looking for a scar-faced Indian named Jesse Eastman, alias Jesse Red Cloud, 35, who Wiegner said made the trip from California with him.

A .22 caliber rifle was found in the smashed escape car. Eastman, apparently not seriously hurt, fled in the darkness. Police said they did not know if he was armed.

The Indian, known also as "Chief" was described by Wiegner as "gun-happy."

* * *

IT WAS A WILD ending to a romance which began last month when Clo Ann and Mike eloped to Montana and were married. When they returned to California, the girl was placed temporarily in a juvenile home and Wiegner in Napa State Hospital as a mental patient. Later, the girl was returned to her parents at Daly City, near San Francisco.

Last Monday Wiegner, declared a problem child at 14, broke out of Napa State Hospital and went to Daly City, Brandishing a gun, he took Clo Ann from the home.

Thug Sought In Akron Is Shot by Cops

NEW YORK (AP)—A gunman reportedly wanted in Akron, Ohio, on homicide charges was taken to a hospital with five police bullets in him Wednesday after shooting a New York taxi driver in an attempted holdup, police reported.

Police identified him as Leroy Keith, 42, a Negro, said to be wanted in Akron on three homicide charges.

Keith, and James T. Morris, 22, of Riverhead, N. Y., were captured after trying to rob David Suro, 47, of the Bronx. They got into Suro's cab, police said, and ordered him to drive them uptown.

Suro deliberately drove into a cruising police car. As the two gunmen tried to escape, police said, Keith fired a shot into Suro's chest. He was reported in serious condition.

Police fired five shots into Keith after he shot at them from under a parked car. Morris was uninjured.

WHS Brass Choir To Tour City Thursday Night

20-Piece Ensemble Ready for Annual Round of Caroling

Strains of the familiar Christmas carols will be c ied through the crisp night air all over the city tonight when the Washington C. H. High School brass choir makes its traditional rounds.

As in years past, the 20 - piece choir will stop frequently to play carols and then move on to another place.

The choir is to start out at 9:15 p. m. and probably will not complete its round until midnight.

Robert Neumann, director of the WHS band and the choir, said the itinerary had not been completed at noon. He added, however, that plans call for going into every section of the city.

Although snow and moonlight admittedly would have made a better background for the choir's caroling, Neumann said it would take more than the cold drizzle of rain that was falling during Thursday morning to balk the plans.

During the morning, the choir made the rounds of the city's five elementary schools, the high school, Memorial Hospital and the Courthouse to give short programs.

* * *

IN THE SCHOOLS the classroom doors were swung wide and study stopped while the choir played in the halls. At the hospital, carols were played both in the office while doors of most of the rooms were opened so that patients could listen. Outside, the hospital motion pictures of the choir, with the boys and girls in blue jeans and school dresses under raincoats, were taken by Charles Pensyl, a member of the school board. Pensyl said the pictures may be used on television.

At the Courthouse, the choir assembled on the first floor corridor to play about a dozen carols.

* * *

NEUMANN SAID the brass choir has been practicing for this occasion for a little more than a month. After Christmas, he said, the group will start getting ready for participation in the district music competition in Wilmington in March.

Members of the brass choir are:

Trumpets— Ronnie Knisley, Danny Miller, Doug Rider, Web Ellis and Dale Fent;

French horns— Sarah Core, Joan Knisley, Nancy Grim and Judy Preston;

Trombones— Nancy Reno, David Korn and Byron Palmer;

Baritones— Sherill Elliott, Joyce Hamilton and John Rhoad;

Sousaphones— Bob Moats, Ronnie Johns, Ronnie Merritt and Joe Coulter.

Lakes Shipping Season Ending

DETROIT (AP)—The Great Lakes shipping season will end Friday when the Sault Ste. Marie locks will be closed until next Spring, the Army Corps of Engineers announced Wednesday.

Ice conditions in the upper lakes dictated the closing date.

The ore carrier George Sloan of U. S. Steel Corp.'s Pittsburgh Steamship division is expected to be the last vessel to come down.

Pittsburgh steamship said Wednesday night that its 57 ships hauled 17,323,000 tons of ore during the season, compared with 23,500,000 tons in 1955.

Traffic Light Control Boxes Being Installed

Installation of the new intersection controllers for the 15 traffic lights in and around the Washington C. H. business section was started Thursday morning.

These controllers, City Manager James F. Parkinson explained, are designed to make possible the timing and coordination of the traffic lights on five east-west streets to effect a "progressive flow" of traffic. The timing, he explained, will be governed by the traffic over Court St.

The new controllers, which arrived from the factory Thursday, are in dark green boxes about 32 by 20 by 18 inches in size. They are to be fastened to the poles which support the traffic lights at the intersections — two on East St., four on Court St., four on Market St., four on Temple St. and one on Paint St.

* * *

PARKINSON explained that any traffic lights added to the system can be connected with the master control board which is to be located at City Hall. This, he said, includes those contemplated for the proposed traffic control regulations at the junction of Clinton, Leesburg and Highland Aves. at the western end of Court St.—if a study by traffic engineers shows such a tie - in advisable.

Weather probably will be a factor in the installation of the controls.

Parkinson pointed out that, while he hopes to get the intersection boxes in place as soon as possible, the new master control mechanism has not yet been shipped from the factory and that there has been no definite information as to when it will be delivered.

The traffic lights themselves all have been repaired and repainted in preparation for the modernization of the system.

Besides looting the safe, the sheriff said preliminary investigation showed a quantity of merchandise, including cigarettes, candy and pipes, was missing.

Gordon Lynch, of Bloomingburg, a patient in Grant Hospital, Columbus, for medical treatment, is reported as being on the critical list.

Miss Paula Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner, will appear in a Dance Revue on television Sunday, at noon, in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Coe, of the Yatesville Community, have purchased the modern residence property on the Jamestown Road, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings, Jr., and will occupy the new home, about January 1. The transaction was handled by the Dew's Real Estate Agency.

Jewelry Firms Said Swindled By 'Salesman'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Seven jewelry firms here have been swindled out of thousands of dollars worth of diamonds by a man they considered a reliable salesman.

Now the "salesman" has disappeared, and detectives consider very interesting the fact they can't find any fingerprints in the home he was occupying. Apparently all the prints had been removed.

Sought in the case was Gene Palmieri, 45, who took diamonds from all of the firms last weekend and hasn't showed up since. The firms said Palmieri told them he was going to sell the gems and return last Monday with the proceeds.

Investigation has showed he has moved from his home here. His automobile was found abandoned in a parking lot here.

The seven Cleveland firms said they gave him diamonds worth between $80,000 and $100,000 retail. One, the Phillips Jewelry Co., signed an affidavit charging him with grand larceny by trick.

Fine for Lawyer Lifted by Court

COLUMBUS (AP)—An attorney who said he arrived at a Zanesville court late because of car trouble, was excused from paying a $100 contempt of court fine by the Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday.

The lawyer, Robert Dow Hamilton of Columbus, was fined by Common Pleas Court Judge Clarence J. Crossland, Zanesville, for being 40 minutes late for a workmen's compensation case in which Hamilton was counsel.

The Supreme Court reversed the fine, saying the "trial court was not free from error."

Grocery Thug Names Pals in Clerk-Slaying

RAVENNA (AP)—Police said today that a member of a gang which made armed raids on groceries in northern Ohio had told them two other members were responsible for the holdup at Uniontown last month in which two men were killed.

Officers said Charles R. Getz, 21, of Loudonville, named Robert Myers, 24, of Wooster, and John Stanton, 24, of Orrville as the killers.

Myers and Stanton, held at Findlay on armed robbery charges, denied any connection with the Uniontown slayings under questioning by Findlay police.

Two other members of the gang, Arthur Steen, 37, and Barbara Jones, 20, both of Wooster, also are in custody on armed robbery charges at Findlay.

Two Uniontown clerks, Reynold Amodio, 30, son of the store owner, and Paul Cain, 35, were slain the night of Nov. 23. Money was scattered on the floor of the grocery, from which about $600 was taken.

Getz, a sophomore at Kent State university, told police: "I know Myers and Stanton were responsible for the Uniontown job." He did not elaborate.

Myers, Stanton, Steen and Miss Jones were arrested at Findlay Saturday night shortly after a food market there had been robbed of $5,607. Police said the money was recovered.

Myers and Stanton told officers Getz was implicated with them in a holdup attempt at a super market here Friday night.

One report said that many Soviet students, including some women, had protested the use of textbooks for propaganda purposes. Some were reported expelled for helping produce a sort of newspaper displaying foreign news bulletins. A Russian educational official later claimed that expulsions were not high and that they were for such routine offenses as absenteeism.

About a week later a dispatch from Moscow said that newspapers received in the Soviet capital reported student unrest in Leningrad and the Baltic states. Some of these reports referred to unrest "bordering on hooliganism."

O'Neill, Ike Chat At White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's GOP governor-elect, C. William O'Neill, chatted with President Eisenhower today and reported later they agreed that getting young, able men into government is a "most difficult" problem.

O'Neill said he told the President during their 20-minute conversation at the White House that the problem on the state level is one of salary and the short time in office. The President, he said, told him this is also true in a national administration.

O'Neill will take over from the Democratic administration headed by Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Asked whether the name of outgoing Sen. Bender (R-Ohio) was mentioned, O'Neill replied, "no."

Robert Neumann, director of the WHS band and the choir, said the itinerary had not been completed at noon. He added, however, that plans call for going into every section of the city.

Although snow and moonlight admittedly would have made a better background for the choir's caroling, Neumann said it would take more than the cold drizzle of rain that was falling during Thursday morning to balk the plans.

During the morning, the choir made the rounds of the city's five elementary schools, the high school, Memorial Hospital and the Courthouse to give short programs.

* * *

IN THE SCHOOLS the classroom doors were swung wide and study stopped while the choir played in the halls. At the hospital, carols were played both in the office while doors of most of the rooms were opened so that patients could listen. Outside, the hospital motion pictures of the choir, with the boys and girls in blue jeans and school dresses under raincoats, were taken by Charles Pensyl, a member of the school board. Pensyl said the pictures may be used on television.

At the Courthouse, the choir assembled on the first floor corridor to play about a dozen carols.

* * *

NEUMANN SAID the brass choir has been practicing for this occasion for a little more than a month. After Christmas, he said, the group will start getting ready for participation in the district music competition in Wilmington in March.

Members of the brass choir are:

Trumpets— Ronnie Knisley, Danny Miller, Doug Rider, Web Ellis and Dale Fent;

French horns— Sarah Core, Joan Knisley, Nancy Grim and Judy Preston;

Trombones— Nancy Reno, David Korn and Byron Palmer;

Baritones— Sherill Elliott, Joyce Hamilton and John Rhoad;

Sousaphones— Bob Moats, Ronnie Johns, Ronnie Merritt and Joe Coulter.

Ohio Mining Boost Seen for Future

COLUMBUS (AP)—If no major war breaks out, and if "the freedom of initiative" is not seriously restricted, Ohio can expect a 60 per cent increase in its surface mining industry, during the next 10 years the annual meeting of the Ohio Reclamation Assn. was told here Wednesday.

The prediction came from Dr. Richard L. Lund, head of the management services department of Battelle Memorial Institute.

Old Bonds Found

Lakes Shipping Season Ending

DETROIT (AP)—The Great Lakes shipping season will end Friday when the Sault Ste. Marie locks will be closed until next Spring, the Army Corps of Engineers announced Wednesday.

Ice conditions in the upper lakes dictated the closing date.

The ore carrier George Sloan of U. S. Steel Corp.'s Pittsburgh Steamship division is expected to be the last vessel to come down.

Pittsburgh steamship said Wednesday night that its 57 ships hauled 17,323,000 tons of ore during the season, compared with 23,500,000 tons in 1955.

Traffic Light Control Boxes Being Installed

Installation of the new intersection controllers for the 15 traffic lights in and around the Washington C. H. business section was started Thursday morning.

These controllers, City Manager James F. Parkinson explained, are designed to make possible the timing and coordination of the traffic lights on five east-west streets to effect a "progressive flow" of traffic. The timing, he explained, will be governed by the traffic over Court St.

The new controllers, which arrived from the factory Thursday, are in dark green boxes about 32 by 20 by 18 inches in size. They are to be fastened to the poles which support the traffic lights at the intersections — two on East St., four on Court St., four on Market St., four on Temple St. and one on Paint St.

* * *

PARKINSON explained that any traffic lights added to the system can be connected with the master control board which is to be located at City Hall. This, he said, includes those contemplated for the proposed traffic control regulations at the junction of Clinton, Leesburg and Highland Aves. at the western end of Court St.—if a study by traffic engineers shows such a tie - in advisable.

Weather probably will be a factor in the installation of the controls.

Parkinson pointed out that, while he hopes to get the intersection boxes in place as soon as possible, the new master control mechanism has not yet been shipped from the factory and that there has been no definite information as to when it will be delivered.

The traffic lights themselves all have been repaired and repainted in preparation for the modernization of the system.

still uncertain how much money had been taken, but was told by Theobald that "there was very little money in the store."

Besides looting the safe, the sheriff said preliminary investigation showed a quantity of merchandise, including cigarettes, candy and pipes, was missing.

Officers of the BCI, who arrived from headquarters at the London Prison Farm about 9 o'clock and, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Charles Hays, spent most of the day taking fingerprints and looking for other clues. The sheriff and the BCI officers had not yet evaluated the evidence.

Trustee Named

OXFORD (AP)—President Herrick B. Young Wednesday announced the appointment of Lewis Clark Thomson of Hamilton as a member of the executive committee of the board of trustees of Western College for Women.

Thomson will succeed Dr. Claude Lotspeich of Cincinnati, who resigned in October. The new committee member is a vice president of the Champion Paper Co.

Mainly About People

Gordon Lynch, of Bloomingburg, a patient in Grant Hospital, Columbus, for medical treatment, is reported as being on the critical list.

Miss Paula Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Turner, will appear in a Dance Revue on television Sunday, at noon, in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy D. Coe, of the Yatesville Community, have purchased the modern residence property on the Jamestown Road, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings, Jr., and will occupy the new home, about January 1. The transaction was handled by the Dew's Real Estate Agency.

Jewelry Firms Said Swindled By 'Salesman'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Seven jewelry firms here have been swindled out of thousands of dollars worth of diamonds by a man they considered a reliable salesman.

Now the "salesman" has disappeared, and detectives consider very interesting the fact they can't find any fingerprints in the home he was occupying. Apparently all the prints had been removed.

Sought in the case was Gene Palmieri, 45, who took diamonds from all of the firms last weekend and hasn't showed up since. The firms said Palmieri told them he was going to sell the gems and return last Monday with the proceeds.

Investigation has showed he has moved from his home here. His automobile was found abandoned in a parking lot here.

The seven Cleveland firms said they gave him diamonds worth between $80,000 and $100,000 retail. One, the Phillips Jewelry Co., signed an affidavit charging him with grand larceny by trick.

Fine for Lawyer Lifted by Court

COLUMBUS (AP)—An attorney who said he arrived at a Zanesville court late because of car trouble, was excused from paying a $100 contempt of court fine by the Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday.

The lawyer, Robert Dow Hamilton of Columbus, was fined by Common Pleas Court Judge Clarence J. Crossland, Zanesville, for being 40 minutes late for a workmen's compensation case in which Hamilton was counsel.

The Supreme Court reversed the fine, saying the "trial court was not free from error."

Grocery Thug Names Pals in Clerk-Slaying

RAVENNA (AP)—Police said today that a member of a gang which made armed raids on groceries in northern Ohio had told them two other members were responsible for the holdup at Uniontown last month in which two men were killed.

Officers said Charles R. Getz, 21, of Loudonville, named Robert Myers, 24, of Wooster, and John Stanton, 24, of Orrville as the killers.

Myers and Stanton, held at Findlay on armed robbery charges, denied any connection with the Uniontown slayings under questioning by Findlay police.

Two other members of the gang, Arthur Steen, 37, and Barbara Jones, 20, both of Wooster, also are in custody on armed robbery charges at Findlay.

Two Uniontown clerks, Reynold Amodio, 30, son of the store owner, and Paul Cain, 35, were slain the night of Nov. 23. Money was scattered on the floor of the grocery, from which about $600 was taken.

Getz, a sophomore at Kent State university, told police: "I know Myers and Stanton were responsible for the Uniontown job." He did not elaborate.

Myers, Stanton, Steen and Miss Jones were arrested at Findlay Saturday night shortly after a food market there had been robbed of $3,607. Police said the money was recovered.

Myers and Stanton told officers Getz was implicated with them in a holdup attempt at a super market here Friday night.

sparked by growing disillusionment with Communist doctrine, were heard earlier this month.

One report said that many Soviet students, including some women, had protested the use of textbooks for propaganda purposes. Some were reported expelled for helping produce a sort of newspaper displaying foreign news bulletins. A Russian educational official later claimed that expulsions were not high and that they were for such routine offenses as absenteeism.

About a week later a dispatch from Moscow said that newspapers received in the Soviet capital reported student unrest in Leningrad and the Baltic states. Some of these reports referred to unrest "bordering on hooliganism."

O'Neill, Ike Chat At White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio's GOP governor-elect, C. William O'Neill, chatted with President Eisenhower today and reported later they agreed that getting young, able men into government is a "most difficult" problem.

O'Neill said he told the President during their 20-minute conversation at the White House that the problem on the state level is one of salary and the short time in office. The President, he said, told him this is also true in a national administration.

O'Neill will take over from the Democratic administration headed by Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Asked whether the name of outgoing Sen. Bender (R-Ohio) was mentioned, O'Neill replied, "no."

Bargain in Booze Planned by State

COLUMBUS (AP)—A bargain sale on 19 more slow-moving brands of liquor was announced today by the state department of liquor control.

Director William C. Bryant said 2,610 cases of the discontinued brand will be placed on sale at reduced prices. Price cuts range from 40 cents on one brand to $3.25 on an imported four-compartment specialty item.

Involved in the bargain sale are 1 cordials and liquers, one rum, one vodka, one whisky blend, one Scotch and four cocktails.

Public's Civil Defense Inertia Dangerous

Those concerned with a civil defense organization program for Fayette County, are expressing some concern over the need for greater public attention to this project in this community.

It is stated that in most localities of the nation this same situation exists and that a tightening of this country's defenses all over the world to meet the delicate international situation's problems is of grave importance. In this regard an adequate civil defense plan of mobilization is considered a vital necessity.

In view of the advance in new weapons and the greater quick - attack possibilities through modern methods of warfare, well organized civil defense and proper training, in case of a catastrophe, could prove to be great life saving aids.

A lightning - like attack on this country, under present circumstances could produce untold panic within hours and as a result wide - spread trouble could follow which would interfere with our national efforts in retaliation as well as toward lessening the damage in many places in our country.

Well planned organization methods to be used in such an event could prove invaluable in all localities. At the same time such organization could be of great aid in any community if some catastrophe shall occur, not connected with war.

Just where does our nation stand today in its readiness to meet a sudden all - out attack if all efforts toward a peaceful solution of world troubles collapse?

Despite handicaps, the civil defense leaders have done some effective work. There have been training courses, practice alerts, and evacuations. Response from the public has been weak, however.

Now the world is in a whirl. But the time has come to think coolly and practically about our state of preparedness.

It is time for the civil -defense planners to step forward with a progress report on how far America's preparations have gone, and to outline what is necessary for every citizen to do for his protection.

Some of this has been said before. But many were not listening. Let's say it again. The world atmosphere may make people a little more responsive now and more eager to be prepared in knowledge of what to do.

Santa's Helpers 'Off Their Rocker'

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia post office has had some queer ones in its time, such as the Christmas gift that resembled a head shrunken in Ecuador. But those false choppers biting into a pear . . . They tumbled out of a damaged gift parcel of fruit and bottled flavorings, the teeth clamped grotesquely, on a pear. Even Harry Rose, veteran chief of the section, was shaken. "Work here long enough," he said, "and you've got to figure some of Santa Claus' helpers are off their rocker." Rose explained he packed up the teeth, the pear and whatever else was worth keeping, and returned them — his curiosity unsatisfied.

A Dream and $50 Million

By Hal Boyle

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—"It's nice sometimes to find that dreams really can come true," said the blue-eyed, middle-aged lady, looking down from the balcony to the sun-worshipers on the beach.

"Yeah," said her husband, comonarch of all they surveyed, except the ocean itself.

They are Al and Sadye Tisch who, with their two sons, Larry, 33, and Bob, 30, in a single decade have become the "world's largest family resort owners."

Their dream come true is the fabulous $17 million Americana, Florida's "hotel of the year."

The building is a 15-floor luxury symbol of the postwar prosperity spree that has come to the United States and to a family—the four Tisches. It is the House That Jack Built, and there's more jack where it came from.

Ten years ago Al, a former New York City College basketball player, and his wife wearied a bit from their chores in running two enterprises—a prosperous clothing business and a successful children's camp. They like their sons, were interested in the hotel field.

"We came to Florida in 1946, but we couldn't make the right deal," said Sadye, who is vivacious and does the talking for the elder branch of the family.

"Yeah," said Al, who is balding, silent and friendly.

So they picked up the $1 million or so they had to invest and began buying hotels elsewhere—Laurel-in-the-Pines in New Jersey, the Belmont Plaza in New York, the Traymore and Ambassador in Atlantic City, and some six other properties. Whatever they touched turned to gold, or, if it didn't they got rid of it quick.

"But we still had Florida sand in our shoes," said Sadye. "We kept coming back to our first dream. For a while we were afraid that Miami Beach was overbuilt, oversold, and overcrowded. But year after year we checked, and found that more and more people were coming here. Do you know seven million people visited Florida last year?"

"Yeah," said Al.

In the spring of 1955 they boutht a 10-acre site here, a 650-foot beachfront, and 17 months and $17 million later they had the Americana Hotel.

The original $1 million or so they started with has been parlayed into properties which the Tisches themselves value at $50 million or more.

Have the Tisches gone mad in a luxury-mad world? Isn't their magnificent hostelry one step too much — even for Miami Beach, the frontier of the frantic dollar?

"No," said Sadye, "the surface of the prosperity here has been barely scratched, in spite of all the hotels that have gone up since the war ended."

"I don't understand it myself," said Al. "Before we even had a guest in the place we were offered 10 million more than we had put into it."

"It's comfortable," said Sadye. "It's our dream come true."

Science Needs Help For Retarded Child

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

About three children out of every 100 born are destined to be mentally retarded— an estimated 120,000 a year. About 4,800,000 children and adults alike suffer from mental retardation. That's about three per cent of our entire population.

Mental retardation is ten times more common than crippling polio. It is over four times more common than permanent rheumatic heart conditions and it is 15 times as prevalent as blindness.

Pretty startling statistics, aren't they?

Real Problem

Vast as this problem is, it goes virtually unrecognized by the general public. Yet for some 10,000,000 persons— the mentally retarded, their parents, brothers and sisters— it is indeed a very real problem.

Jack Benny, who is Honorary Fund Drive Chairman for the National Association for Retarded Children, asked me— and other health writers— to mention the problem during November when the Association was conducting its annual campaign for funds.

Research Needed

His request arrived too late for me to include it in any of last month's columns. But I'm glad it did. For funds are needed to conduct research into this tremendous problem all year long. We can't do enough in a single month - long period.

In many cases mental retardation probably could be prevented. Yet, pitifully little research is being done in this field.

We know some of the causes. In fact, there are about 70 known or suspected diseases or mishaps occurring either before or during birth or during early childhood which are linked to mental retardation.

German measles, hepatitis and various other diseases which strike a mother during pregnancy may be connected with retardation of the baby.

Fifth Amendment Hearings

By George Sokolsky

Queer things happen before congressional committees when they hold hearings in what are known as Communist cases and witnesses take refuge in the Fifth Amendment whether it fits or not. I am referring to one Abraham Bick who appeared before the House Committee on Unamerican Activities.

It would seem that an article was published in a monthly magazine written by one who gave as his byline the name and title of Rabbi Abraham Bick and no matter where one looks only one such person is identifiable. The committee quotes the article which is dated Prague, Nov. 13, (1950) and deals with the Second World Congress for Peace which was a Communist propaganda enterprise. So the document is shown to Bick who responds:

"I plead the Fifth Amendment and will not answer anything which can lead to self-incrimination, testifying against myself."

Then the colloquy becomes silly:

"Mr. Kearney. Tnat is without even looking at the document?

"Mr. Bick. I have seen it.

"Mr. Arens. When did you see it, Mr. Bick?

"Mr. Bick. Just now when you gave it to me.

"Mr. Arens. Have you ever seen it before?

"Mr. Bick. I respectfully decline to answer on the grounds of the Fifth Amendment.

"Mr. Arens. Are you the Abraham Bick who wrote this article?

"Mr. Bick. The same answer, sir.

"Mr. Arens. Were you in Prague on Nov. 13, 1950?

"Mr. Bick. The same answer under the Fifth Amendment.

"Mr. Arens. I put it to you as a fact, that you were the person who wrote this article and that you were the person who was in Prague on Nov. 13, 1950, to attend the Second World Congress for Peace.

"Mr. Bick. I stick to my right not to self-incriminate myself and I invoke the Fifth Amendment, sir."

The colloquy is silly because Bick's passport indicates where he was at a given time and he has written a large number of articles and delivered speeches all of which make him identifiable and there are photographs of him. In a word, his refusal to identify himself and his career has nothing to do with the Fifth Amendment but is more in the nature of telling the committee to go to the devil, and it would be easier, it seems to me, to say it that way.

In 1956, it must have been very embarrassing to Bick because he said in 1950 that there was no anti - semitism in the countries behind the Iron Curtain, but Khrushchev, in his 20th Congress speech, referred to Stalin's practice of anti - semitism at that very time. Either Bick or Khrushchev told the truth, but not both of them. Also, it is to be noted that the committees of American Rabbis who visited Soviet Russia during the smiling days of the Geneva spirit found much to discourage them from believing Bick's whitewash of Stalin's regime.

The trouble here, I am sure, must rest with lawyers who have discovered in the Fifth Amendment a sanctuary which they employ until it becomes an absurdity as it does in this case where the man is identified by a passport and newspaper photograph.

I read about 25 printed pages of this stuff and wondered why the Fifth Amendment can be used to waste time when it stands to reason that if a man signed an article which is printed in a journal he can go meandering about declining to answer as to his name, his whereabouts, his identity on the basis that if he answers anything it might incriminate him.

Again, we have this absurd sort of answering:

"Mr. Kearney. What is the Jefferson school?

"Mr. Bick. The Fifth Amendment?

"Mr. Kearney. What is the Jefferson school?

"Mr. Bick. It is a school, probably.

"Mr. Kearney. What kind of a school?

"Mr. Bick. Doesn't it say on the letterhead there?

"Mr. Kearney. I don't know. You tell me.

"The Chairman. You said it is a school. If you know it is a school, what kind of a school is it?

"Mr. Bick. Look at the letterhead and see.

"Mr. Kearney. Do you know who runs the school?

"Mr. Bick. I don't know."

The Jefferson school was run by the Communist party, and Bick gave a course there.

Public's Civil Defense Inertia Dangerous

Those concerned with a civil defense organization program for Fayette County, are expressing some concern over the need for greater public attention to this project in this community.

It is stated that in most localities of the nation this same situation exists and that a tightening of this country's defenses all over the world to meet the delicate international situation's problems is of grave importance. In this regard an adequate civil defense plan of mobilization is considered a vital necessity.

In view of the advance in new weapons and the greater quick - attack possibilities through modern methods of warfare, well organized civil defense and proper training, in case of a catastrophe, could prove to be great life saving aids.

A lightning - like attack on this country, under present circumstances could produce untold panic within hours and as a result wide - spread trouble could follow which would interfere with our national efforts in retaliation as well as toward lessening the damage in many places in our country.

Well planned organization methods to be used in such an event could prove invaluable in all localities. At the same time such organization could be of great aid in any community if some catastrophe shall occur, not connected with war.

Just where does our nation stand today in its readiness to meet a sudden all - out attack if all efforts toward a peaceful solution of world troubles collapse?

Despite handicaps, the civil defense leaders have done some effective work. There have been training courses, practice alerts, and evacuations. Response from the public has been weak, however.

Now the world is in a whirl. But the time has come to think coolly and practically about our state of preparedness.

It is time for the civil -defense planners to step forward with a progress report on how far America's preparations have gone, and to outline what is necessary for every citizen to do for his protection.

Some of this has been said before. But many were not listening. Let's say it again. The world atmosphere may make people a little more responsive now and more eager to be prepared in knowledge of what to do.

A Dream and $50 Million

By Hal Boyle

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—"It's nice sometimes to find that dreams really can come true," said the blue-eyed, middle-aged lady, looking down from the balcony to the sun-worshipers on the beach.

"Yeah," said her husband, comonarch of all they surveyed, except the ocean itself.

They are Al and Sadye Tisch who, with their two sons, Larry, 33, and Bob, 30, in a single decade have become the "world's largest family resort owners."

Their dream come true is the fabulous $17 million Americana, Florida's "hotel of the year."

The building is a 15-floor luxury symbol of the postwar prosperity spree that has come to the United States and to a family—the four Tisches. It is the House That Jack Built, and there's more jack where it came from.

Ten years ago Al, a former New York City College basketball player, and his wife wearied a bit from their chores in running two enterprises—a prosperous clothing business and a successful children's camp. They like their sons, were interested in the hotel field.

"We came to Florida in 1946, but we couldn't make the right deal," said Sadye, who is vivacious and does the talking for the elder branch of the family.

"Yeah," said Al, who is balding, silent and friendly.

So they picked up the $1 million or so they had to invest and began buying hotels elsewhere—Laurel-in-the-Pines in New Jersey, the Belmont Plaza in New York, the Traymore and Ambassador in Atlantic City, and some six other properties. Whatever they touched turned to gold, or, if it didn't they got rid of it quick.

"But we still had Florida sand in our shoes," said Sadye. "We kept coming back to our first dream. For a while we were afraid that Miami Beach was overbuilt, oversold, and overcrowded. But year after year we checked, and found that more and more people were coming here. Do you know seven million people visited Florida last year?"

"Yeah," said Al.

In the spring of 1955 they boutht a 10-acre site here, a 650-foot beachfront, and 17 months and $17 million later they had the Americana Hotel.

The original $1 million or so they started with has been parlayed into properties which the Tisches themselves value at $50 million or more.

Have the Tisches gone mad in a luxury-mad world? Isn't their magnificent hostelry one step too much — even for Miami Beach, the frontier of the frantic dollar?

"No," said Sadye, "the surface of the prosperity here has been barely scratched, in spite of all the hotels that have gone up since the war ended."

"I don't understand it myself," said Al. "Before we even had a guest in the place we were offered 10 million more than we had put into it."

"It's comfortable," said Sadye. "It's our dream come true."

Science Needs Help For Retarded Child

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

About three children out of every 100 born are destined to be mentally retarded— an estimated 120,000 a year. About 4,800,000 children and adults alike suffer from mental retardation. That's about three per cent of our entire population.

Mental retardation is ten times more common than crippling polio. It is over four times more common than permanent rheumatic heart conditions and it is 15 times as prevalent as blindness.

Pretty startling statistics, aren't they?

Real Problem

Vast as this problem is, it goes virtually unrecognized by the general public. Yet for some 10,000,000 persons— the mentally retarded, their parents, brothers and sisters— it is indeed a very real problem.

Jack Benny, who is Honorary Fund Drive Chairman for the National Association for Retarded Children, asked me— and other health writers— to mention the problem during November when the Association was conducting its annual campaign for funds.

Research Needed

His request arrived too late for me to include it in any of last month's columns. But I'm glad it did. For funds are needed to conduct research into this tremendous problem all year long. We can't do enough in a single month - long period.

In many cases mental retardation probably could be prevented. Yet, pitifully little research is being done in this field.

We know some of the causes. In fact, there are about 70 known or suspected diseases or mishaps occurring either before or during birth or during early childhood which are linked to mental retardation.

German measles, hepatitis and various other diseases which strike a mother during pregnancy may be connected with retardation of the baby.

Santa's Helpers 'Off Their Rocker'

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia post office has had some queer ones in its time, such as the Christmas gift that resembled a head shrunken in Ecuador. But those false choppers biting into a pear . . . They tumbled out of a damaged gift parcel of fruit and bottled flavorings, the teeth clamped grotesquely, on a pear. Even Harry Rose, veteran chief of the section, was shaken. "Work here long enough," he said, "and you've got to figure some of Santa Claus' helpers are off their rocker." Rose explained he packed up the teeth, the pear and whatever else was worth keeping, and returned them — his curiosity unsatisfied.

Mrs. Madge Pensyl was devotional leader and read, "Jungle Christmas", by Albert Schweitzer, the story of experiences as a missionary in distant Africa, which was most interesting. She also read the Christmas Story as found in the book of Luke and from John and closed with prayer.

Mrs. John A. Leland, secretary, and Mrs. Mark Girton, treasurer, gave their reports and plans were made to remember the shut-in members of the Circle at holiday time.

Mrs. Pensyl presented Mrs. Dial with a gift in appreciation from the Circle members for her work as leader.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Lynch who presented Mrs. Frank Thatcher in a reading, "When I Was a Little Girl", and Mrs. Dial read, "The Three Chests", both articles being taken from "Ideals", magazine. Three appropriate musical records were played and the Mizpha benediction repeated.

With drawn shades, a colorfully decorated and lighted Christmas tree, and the large living room alow with lighted candles, and decorations of the season's motifs, all made a perfect setting for the prolonged social hour when a tempting dessert course was served by Mrs. Lynch and her assistants, Mrs. D. G. Waters and Mrs. Chloe Keefer.

Humidity affects the moisture content of flour; yeast-bread recipes usually take this into account by calling for an approximate of flour.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

A familiar service to rural folks of Fayette County passed out of the picture, some 13 years ago when Marlin Evans of Pleasant View, Jefferson Township, quit operating his huckster truck as an adjunct to his general store in Pleasant View.

There is a very good reason why there are no longer any huckster wagons or trucks in operation in this community. The answer is the large number of automobiles, which simply wiped out the necessity of using huckster wagons and trucks to reach customers.

Peddling or huckster wagons were started originally by enterprising storekeepers who wished to reach a lot customers who could not come to their stores frequently.

The wagons, usually drawn by two horses, went from house to house at stated intervals, throughout the rural areas, carrying a surprisingly large line of staple goods and accepting butter, eggs and poultry in exchange for the goods sold.

Those were really days of "trading" but today we "shop" instead of "trade."

Some of the goods carried by these peddling wagons (later known as huckster wagons), included yard goods, thread, ribbon, needles and pins, coffee, tea, pepper, sugar, beans, candy, chewing gum, and notions. No canned goods were available in the early days.

This method of bringing staple goods to the farmhouse door was popular, and certainly a boon to every housewife. The weekly visits of the peddler were looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure.

Surprisingly large amounts of goods were sold in this manner.

Sometimes a few cents would be left over between the amount allowed for eggs, chickens and butter and regular purchases, so this would be invested in stick candy, peppermint or wintergreen lozengers, and chewing gum, to the great delight of the children (and mom and pop).

The more frugal customers bought nutmeg or other inexpensive articles instead of candy and chewing gum, which were classified as luxuries.

Buck Elliott for years operated the J. R. Lohr and Son huckster wagon out of Bloomingburg. Ace Wright ran such a wagon for Scott Bros. in Bloomingburg until about 1911. Ed Alexander also manned a wagon out of Bloomingburg. Marvin Brown had a huckster wagon or truck in Jeffersonville until 1936.

Marlin Evans discontinued his huckster route in 1943, and prior to that he operated a truck for Mrs. Dolly Brown, of Pleasant View, until 1939.

HAS UNUSUAL TROPHY

Probably the finest set of "Texas Long Horn" steer horns this part of Ohio, are the proud possession of Joe Grimm, owner of the Tracey Sign Works in this city, who lives on Pisgah Rd. southeast of Good Hope.

Joe obtained the set from Harry Rife, Fayette County's leading muzzle loading rifle collector, who in turn obtained the set from a gun fancier in Montana.

Each horn, which has a perfect twist, is in excess of 40 inches in length, and when the pair of horns was mounted recently by Bill Turner, of Millwood, the set measured seven feet and seven inches from tip to tip.

Bill did an excellent job in mounting the horns, using a base or shield of beautifully finished oak, with trim of hand-tooled leather.

The Texas Long Horns in thier wild state, were known as killers, and their extremely long horns were lethal weapons against man and beast.

THAT QUICKSAND

In connection with a recent article on the greatest deviation of gravity in Ohio (immediately east of Washington C. H.) Ralph R. Penn, city, has confirmed the existence of quicksand east of this city.

The place he mentions is farther than the one I recalled where quicksand was found, but the information is very interesting, nevertheless.

The quicksand I knew about was found in a field immediately northeast of the J. H. McWilliams home, and north of Route 22 east, a mile east of Washington C. H.

Ralph's communication, regarding the quicksand follows:

"When we bought the farm at the intersection of the Bogus and Robinson Rds., in 1905, there was one field that had a very wet spot of about three of four acres and was a pond each spring and fall. Oftentimes ducks were shot over this pond.

"Of course we could not cultivate this wet spot so about 50 years ago we tiled the pond, and to get an outlet, we had to dig through a ridge and place the tile at a depth of eight or 10 feet, where we found quicksand. "We were puzzled how to lay tile on this quicksand, so we laid oak plank in the bottom of the ditch with the tile on top. This tile empties into an open ditch where we can see the outlet, and to this day during a rainy season we can see lots of water leaving this tile, showing that the tile laid on plank in quicksand operates satisfactory.

"This farm is about 3½ miles east of Washington C. H. which confirms your observation about quicksand being found east of here."

Ex-Iraq Premier Handed Sentence

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP)—A former Iraqi minister of economics was sentenced to three years at hard labor and four other political figures were placed on probation for a year at a secret trial here.

The court did not announce the charges. Defense attorneys said the five were accused of attempting to topple Premier Nuri Said's government. The ex-minister was Kamel Chadurchy, 59, president of the proposed national congress party. Political parties are banned in Iraq.

Bender Said Eyed For Special Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Patterson (R-Conn) has predicted that Sen. Bender (R-Ohio), defeated for re-election, "will be appointed to an important post in the Eisenhower administration."

Patterson said: "he (Bender) is currently being considered for appointment to the Subversive Activities Control Board—also being considered for appointment to the postmaster generalship."

Bender said he had no idea where such "rumors originate."

Millionaire Lay Preacher Irked by Beer Tie to Name

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — R. G. LeTourneau, multimillionaire industrialist, wants his name taken out of a brand name because, he said, beer and bathing beauties don't mix with his religious tenets.

The 66-year-old magnate who once said "God is chairman of my board of directors" wants his surname striken from earth-moving equipment made by LeTourneau-Westinghouse Co. Company officials declined comment at the request.

Behind the controversy was a publicity stunt used by the Pabst Brewing Co. in Peoria last summer to introduce a new type beer.

A huge LeTourneau-Westinghouse machine rolled through the streets. In its open tank a man swam in a mixture of the new beer and water. Scantily clad models adorned the rim of the portable pool.

LeTourneau, who in 1953 sold his Peoria plant to Westinghouse Air Brake Co., expressed his indignation over the stunt in an open letter to the company published in the Christmas edition of "Now," a monthly publication of LeTourneau Tech in Longview, Tex.

"I am very much against liquor," the letter said. "I have consistently refused liquor advertisements at considerable loss of revenue on the two radio stations which I control. . .

"I would not have thought you (LeTourneau - Westinghouse) would hav allowed your product to be advertised in this manner—it certainly will affect your witness for Christ."

Le Tourneau sent a copy of the letter to Meri Yontz, president of LeTourneau - Westinghouse, suggesting that LeTourneau be dropped from the company name.

Yontz would not comment on the suggestion but said the Westinghouse purchase of the plant included the LeTourneau name with no strings attached.

R. G. LeTourneau, Inc., builds earth moving equipment at other plants but has no connection with the Peoria factory.

A lay preacher of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, LeTourneau attributes his spectacular rise in the business world to God's help.

When LeTourneau ran the Peoria plant, religious meetings were held inside the factory several times a day.

Manufacturing Employment Well Distributed in Ohio

INDUSTRIAL WORKERS—Cross-hatched counties on the Ohio map above indicate more than 10,000 manufacturing employes. Single-hatched counties have between 1,000 and 10,000 workers each. Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce figures show approximately 1,250 Fayette residents now are employed by industries within the county, with about 600 working in industry in other cities.

COLUMBUS — Ohio has by far the best distribution of manufacturing employment over the state of any of the six most industrialized states of the Union.

This assertion by the Ohio Development and Publicity Commission is based on an analysis of the preliminary reports of the census of manufacturers for 1954. This census, the first since 1947, shows that Ohio ranks second among the states in value added by manufacture—the worth of the product minus the raw materials—and third in number of manufacturing workers.

Only six states of the 48 had a million or more manufacturing workers in 1954. Of these, five were in the East. The sixth was California.

* * *

WITH A TOTAL of 1,270,057 manufacturing workers, Ohio was behind New York, with 1,910,904, and Pennsylvania, which had 1,425,032. Illinois had 1,183,381, California 1,026,350, and Michigan 1,009,059.

Of Ohio's manufacturing workers, 23 per cent were in the Cleveland metropolitan area, including Cuyahoga and Lake counties. Cuyahoga County alone accounted for 22 per cent.

Hamilton County, including Cincinnati, was second, with 11 per cent. There were 18 counties with 10,000 or more workers each, and 54 with manufacturing employment between 1,000 and 10,000. Only 16 of Ohio's 88 counties had fewer than 1,000 manufacturing workers each.

Manufacturing employment in New York is heavily concentrated in the New York City area. The portion of the New York metropolitan area in New York state contained 59 percent of the state's manufacturing workers in 1954. Manhattan had 28 percent, Brooklyn 12 percent, of the state total.

* * *

PHILADELPHIA COUNTY had 27 percent of the manufacturing workers of Pennsylvania, and the Philadelphia metropolitan area in Pennsylvania (part is in New Jersey) contained a total of 42 per cent of the state's manufacturing workers. Allegheny County, including Pittsburgh, contained 17 per cent.

Of the Illinois manufacturing workers, 71 per cent were in the Illinois part of the Chicago metropolitan area, and Cook County (Chicago) alone contained 5 per cent.

The Detroit metropolitan area contained 54 per cent of Michigan's manufacturing workers.

Wayne County, including the city of Detroit, accounted for nearly 45 per cent.

In California, the Los Angeles—Long Beach area accounted for 62 per cent of the state's manufacturing employment. Los Angeles County alone contained 60 per cent.

Meet the New State 'Family'

Farmer from Logan County Is Speaker of Ohio House

Editor's Note: Following is the fourth in a series of five articles on the people and problems likely to confront the Republican party as it takes over full command of the Ohio state government next month.

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The easy way to do it would be to say Ohio House Speaker Roger Cloud is a most unusual man.

But that would give no one a real picture of the third man who — with Gov.-elect C. William O'Neill and Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem—will be piloting the state of Ohio over the financial shoals in the months just ahead.

The speaker of the House, traditionally and ceremoniously, recognizes a member who wishes to address the House as: "The gentleman from. . . ."

But no time-honored ceremony would be involved in Cloud's case. Almost without exception, his fellow House members think of him, truly, as: "The Gentleman from Logan County."

Even though his medium-sized frame seems always on the go, the prematurely gray speaker always seems to have time to be polite. That trait is not entirely unknown in legislative halls, but it becomes rarer as tense sessions warm up.

The second shocker about Roger Cloud is when he begins to talk.

In this age of sloppy diction, Cloud's clipped, almost letter-perfect speech is astonishing; his command of the language is almost awe-inspiring.

He isn't content with the almost-correct word to express his thoughts; he wants the exact word and without pausing or stumbling, he reaches into his vast vocabulary and finds it.

Sometimes the words he digs from the recesses of his mind are total strangers to many House members, but they manage to get the drift of what he's talking about.

As House leader, Cloud has problems his Senate counterpart — C. Stanley Mechem — doesn't have. The difference is largely one of numbers. Cloud has roughly four times as many Republican members to "handle" as does Mechem.

That means four times as many personal contacts—little conferences in which Cloud may placate, scold, bolster or cajole one or several members as circumstances dictate.

The speaker celebrated his 46th birthday early this month as he prepared to start his second term as House leader.

He is one of the most diligent laborers in legislative halls of any recent speakers.

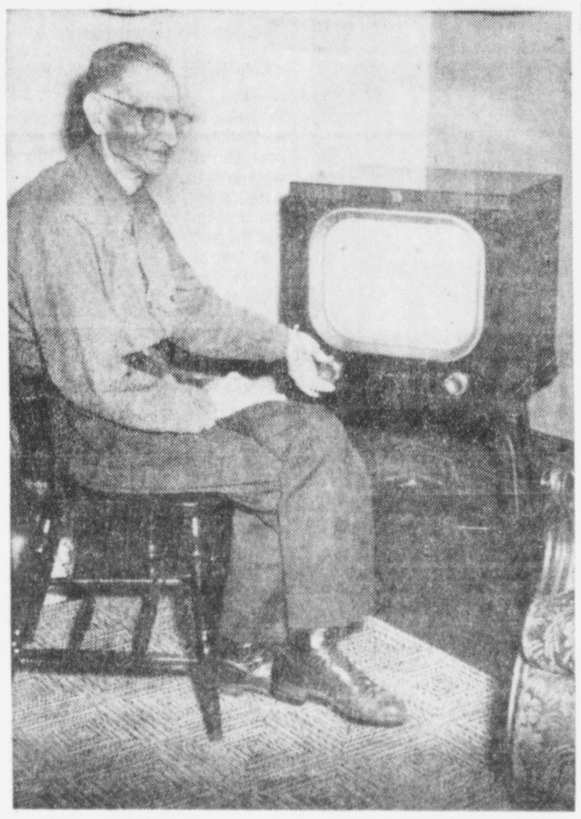
Cloud intended to be a lawyer. He was a successful schoolboy debater and enrolled in a pre-law course at Ohio State University after graduating from high school at 15. But a gasoline station explosion claimed his brother's life and Roger found it necessary to return to his family's farm to help out.

The legal studies continued by way of a correspondence course but with Cloud it was only a labor of love. He never took the state bar examination.

Cloud operates a 550-acre farm within two miles of his birthplace. He also has a major interest in Cloud & Alverneiso, Inc., specialized construction contractors, with headquarters in Bellefontaine.

In this day, stories are not supposed to have morals appended, but for the wiseacres who contend a "nice guy" has two strikes on him in this world and cannot make the grade, take the word of Ohio's law-makers:

"Roger's doing all right."



MERRY CHRISTMAS—The holiday season is brighter for Charles Jones, 214 Green St., because of a television set presented to him by members of the Buckeye chapter of the Mail Bag Club which specializes in philanthropic work. Mr. Jones, a deliveryman for Railway Express here for 32 years, is now retired and a shut-in. Making the presentation were Mrs. Edna Fout, Mrs. Mabel Ashbaugh, Miss Elizabeth Fout, Mrs. Essie Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Lillian Penwell, Mrs. Lovey Riley, club president, Mrs. Pauline Foy and C. B. Tillis.

Annual Holiday Party Planned At Courthouse

The Fayette County Courthouse will be open Monday, but it's not likely that there will be much business.

The traditional Christmas party is scheduled to start at 10:30 a. m. in the ground floor office of County Engineer, Charles Wagner.

Whether the county officers and the clerks come back after lunch to spend the last afternoon before Christmas at their normal routine in the offices has not been definitely decided. But, indications are that most of the offices will be closed; the decision may not be reached until the county commissioners meet Monday morning before the party.

The consensus that the most folks will be so occupied with preparations for Christmas, they won't take time for any business in the Courthouse the day before.

* * *

CHARLES A. FABB, treasurer, said that in view of the Monday afternoon closing possibility, those who may need sales tax receipts should "play it safe" and get them no later than Saturday morning.

The only exception to the general trend is the recorder's office and Common Pleas Court. The latter will remain open because the Hopkins vs Hopkins divorce case is scheduled for hearing by Judge William Radcliff of Pickaway County sitting by assignment after Judge John P. Case disqualified himself.

The party Monday morning in the engineer's office is for everyone in the Courthouse but, as usual, it is the feminine contingent that is making all the arrangements. Coffee, cookies and candy will be served throughout the morning.

My Most Memorable Christmas

BY E. ROLAND HARRIMAN

(EDITOR'S NOTE: E. Roland Harriman, chairman of the American National Red Cross, was appointed principal officer of the organization by President Truman on Nov. 2, 1950, and was reappointed by President Eisenhower in June, 1953. Harriman succeeded Gen. George C. Marshall.

Harriman is a New York banker, chairman of the board of directors of the Union Pacific Railroad company and a trustee of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York.)

E. Roland Harriman

WASHINGTON—There it sat under the Christmas tree, large as life—in fact, larger, to my 10-year-old eyes.

For several years I had considered myself handy with tools, carpenter tools in particular. I had made lopsided bird houses, stern-wheeled flat boats powered by elastic bands that sank, and all the other knick-knacks that used to be a joy to the young of a half century ago.

My toy instruments never cut true, and I blamed them instead on myself, for I was convinced that with a proper set of tools I was destined to be a master carpenter and a builder of objects of beauty.

Time and again, as Christmas-time rolled around, I asked my father for a chest of tools worthy of my skill.

Year after year Santa Claus brought me presents galore to delight any child. And I was delighted, of course; but still no tools!

"Boy," my father would say each time, "remember, a good workman can work with poor tools."

Wise words, but of no great consolation to a disappointed youngster, who really wanted a set of tools all his own.

But, this Christmas here it was. From the size and shape of the bulky box, I knew it could be nothing else. Oblivious to all the family and the surplusage of other presents, I threw open the chest.

Yes, there they were!

Real saws, cut and rip, man-sized hammer, brace and bits, chisels, gouges, planes and all the other tools of the trade.

Enough to build a house I thought in my excitement of the moment. But by the next spring I settled for a chicken coop.

The tools long since have become lost, strayed or been stolen, but the Christmas words of my father still remain with me and have stood me in good stead for 50 years:

"Boy, remember, a good workman can work with poor tools."

Navy To Enlist Special Unit In Central Ohio

Fayette County Men To Be Included in District Company

A special Navy recruit company, to be called the Scioto Company, will be enlisted from the Central Ohio recruiting area, which includes Fayette County, Jan. 24.

This will be the second full Navy company enlisted from the Central Ohio area within the last four months. Members of the first company, "Heart of Ohio" left Columbus Oct. 24, and are now completing their recruit training at Bainbridge, Md.

Lieut. Com. J. O. Gundrum, USN, officer in charge of Navy recruiting at Columbus, stated, "A company program is of great morale value in that young men enlisted will remain with friends from their home towns, working, training, and enjoying their off-duty hours together."

All special programs open to individual men enlisting in the Navy are open to members of the Scioto Company. One opportunity offered is the high school graduate training program, in which qualified high school graduates are assured a school in the field of their choice prior to enlistment.

* * *

THE SCIOTO COMPANY will undergo nine weeks of recruit training as a unit at Bainbridge, Md. The men of this company will be granted 14 days leave upon completion of recruit training and prior to their first Navy assignmen to service schools, ships and stations.

This increased type of recruiting operation will be continued throughout the year in order to re-enlist Navy veterans in the largest numbers possible due to the valuable training they have already received, and also to enlist competent recruits who can absorb the current highly technical training.

This type manpower is now required due to the technical advances made in guided missiles, atomic power, and electronic equipment, Navy officials poinf out.

The Washington C. H. Navy recruiting station is located in the American Legion Hall, 212 N. Fayette St. The telephone number is 9861.

Navy To Enlist Special Unit In Central Ohio

Fayette County Men To Be Included in District Company

A special Navy recruit company, to be called the Scioto Company, will be enlisted from the Central Ohio recruiting area, which includes Fayette County, Jan. 24.

This will be the second full Navy company enlisted from the Central Ohio area within the last four months. Members of the first company, "Heart of Ohio" left Columbus Oct. 24, and are now completing their recruit training at Bainbridge, Md.

Lieut. Com. J. O. Gundrum, USN, officer in charge of Navy recruiting at Columbus, stated, "A company program is of great morale value in that young men enlisted will remain with friends from their home towns, working, training, and enjoying their off-duty hours together."

All special programs open to individual men enlisting in the Navy are open to members of the Scioto Company. One opportunity offered is the high school graduate training program, in which qualified high school graduates are assured a school in the field of their choice prior to enlistment.

* * *

THE SCIOTO COMPANY will undergo nine weeks of recruit training as a unit at Bainbridge, Md. The men of this company will be granted 14 days leave upon completion of recruit training and prior to their first Navy assignmen to service schools, ships and stations.

This increased type of recruiting operation will be continued throughout the year in order to re-enlist Navy veterans in the largest numbers possible due to the valuable training they have already received, and also to enlist competent recruits who can absorb the current highly technical training.

This type manpower is now required due to the technical advances made in guided missiles, atomic power, and electronic equipment, Navy officials point out.

The Washington C. H. Navy recruiting station is located in the American Legion Hall, 212 N. Fayette St. The telephone number is 9861.

WCH Girl Receives Scholarship Award

The Capital School of Beauty Culture has awarded a 1957 scholarship to Miss Barbara Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Bowen, 1202 E. Paint St.

Mrs. Iva M. Fulmer, dean of the Columbus school, in announcing the choice, pointed out that a scholarship is presented annually to one of the candidates selected by field representatives as deserving of the award. Miss Bowen was nominated by Mrs. Ginger Marshall, representative for the Washington C. H. area.

The United States Marine Corps dates from Nov. 10, 1775.

Mrs. Woodson, Church Leader, Honored at Special Services

A big red leather book with "This Is Your Life" in gold on the front is one of Mrs. Margaret Woodson's most cherished possessions.

It was presented to her at a special service at the AME Chapel on N. Main St. and was sponsored by the stewardesses of the church as a token of appreciation of her leadership and inspiration through the years.

On the printed pages inside is the detailed, step-by-step, story of her life that brings back some of the memories of the things she has done, things she admitted she had forgotten but had left a lasting impression on those whom she helped and guided.

* * *

IT RECALLS that she was born here, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, was married in 1906 to Charles Woodson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Harris and moved to Columbus, where she was active in the church.

Coming back to her native town in 1917, she continued her church work and soon become one of the pillars of the AME Chapel.

The story of her life recalls how she helped with the Girl Scout program, became one of the mainstays of the church choir and the Pastor's Aid Society and later was an inspiration to the Community Club, which added a corsage as its own contribution to the recognition ceremonies.

* * *

HER DAUGHTER, Ruth, now Mrs. Murvell McCants, who has held a responsible position in the Wilberforce University office for years, was here for the recognition ceremony for her mother.

The "This Is Your Life" program was conducted by Mrs. Pearlie May Stewart with a big gathring of Mrs. Woodson's old friends and associates filling the church. Many of these had come from a distance, especially for the occasion.

Mrs. Woodson continued to live in her home, 1019 E. Temple St., after the death of her husband seven years ago.

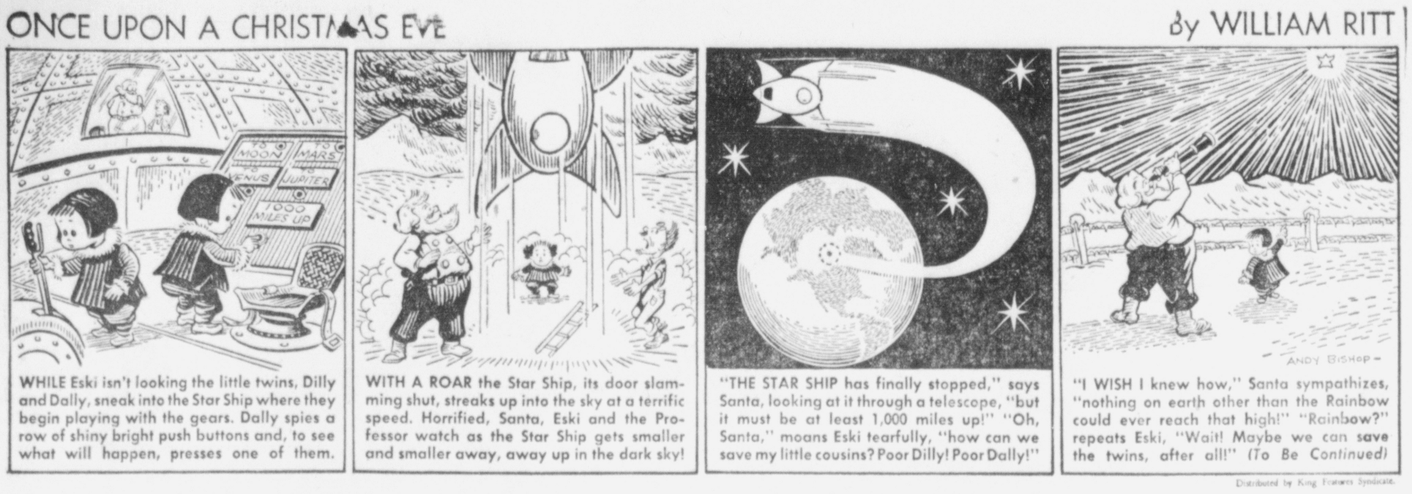
ONCE UPON A CHRISTMAS EVE

By WILLIAM RITT



WHILE Eski isn't looking the little twins, Dilly and Dally, sneak into the Star Ship where they begin playing with the gears. Dally spies a row of shiny bright push buttons and, to see what will happen, presses one of them.

WITH A ROAR the Star Ship, its door slamming shut, streaks up into the sky at a terrific speed. Horrified, Santa, Eski and the Professor watch as the Star Ship gets smaller and smaller away, away up in the dark sky!

"THE STAR SHIP has finally stopped," says Santa, looking at it through a telescope, "but it must be at least 1,000 miles up!" "Oh, Santa," moans Eski tearfully, "how can we save my little cousins? Poor Dilly! Poor Dally!"

"I WISH I knew how," Santa sympathizes, "nothing on earth other than the Rainbow could ever reach that high!" "Rainbow?" repeats Eski, "Wait! Maybe we can save the twins, after all!" (To Be Continued)

Self-Employed Farmer Should Understand Social Security Rights

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article is the ninth of a series prepared by Leonard S. Garrard, field representative for the Social Security Administration in Fayette County, Garrard's home office is in Columbus.

By LEONARD S. GARRARD

The 1956 amendments to the social security law include several provisions which make it easier for a self-employed farmer to understand his rights under the old-age and survivors insurance program. One of these relates to share-farming or share-cropping.

Congress realized that there was need for clarification of the status of the share-cropper as a self-employed farmer for social security purposes.

Persons who farm another person's land on a share arrangement often have some characteristics of employees and some characteristics of self-employed persons.

The amended law makes it clear that, where social security is concerned, in the general share-farming arrangement they are self-employed farmers if their share depends on the total amount produced, even in cases where the landowner has a lot of say about the way the farm is run.

ANOTHER amendment will help clear up questions about crew leaders ("labor contractors" or "row bosses") in relation to short period workers they furnish to farmers for the harvesting of fruit and vegetables or the picking or cropping of cotton.

These farm workers may be covered by the social security law, but in the past it has sometimes not been easy to tell whether the employer of the members of the crew was the farmer who was having the work done or the crew leader (or "labor contractor" or "row boss"). The amended law makes it easier to tell who is the employers.

If you are a crew leader, the crew members you furnish and pay are your employees unless you and the farmer have entered into a written agreement which shows that you are his employee.

* * *

IF YOU ARE a farm operator using crew workers, and you have entered into a written agreement with the crew leader which shows that he is your employe, then the crew members are also your employers. This provision is effective for work performed after Dec. 31, 1956.

Because members of a farm crew move from farm to farm and area to area, a greater part of their cash farm wages will be covered by social security where the crew leader is the employer as these short-period workers generally work for the same crew leader longer than for any single farm operator.

Moreover, where the crew leader is the employer, the farmer is relieved of the responsibility of record keeping, social security tax withholding, and reporting, and the obligation of getting information about each of the workers with whom he may have only a brief vague contact.

Having only one employer instead of several different employers in connection with doing the same work, they will more easily meet the $150 cash wage and 20-day time tests which apply to their farm work for each employer.

In my next article, I shall explain how the amended law has changed the social security coverage rules for all farm employes and how, beginning with 1957, it will work to the advantage of both employers and employes for whom farming or ranching is a means of livelihood.

4 Draft-Dodgers Plead Innocent

These farm workers may be covered by the social security law, but in the past it has sometimes not been easy to tell whether the employer of the members of the crew was the farmer who was having the work done or the crew leader (or "labor contractor" or "row boss"). The amended law makes it easier to tell who is the employers.

Frisco Cagers Taste Defeat For 3rd Time

Famous Dons Quintet No Longer Able To Show Winning Form

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two years ago San Francisco's Dons came quietly out of the West and took college basketball by storm. Now this season's club, doomed from the start, is on the last leg of a dreary trip through the Midwest, facing a rebuilding job for the future.

After adding five victories to the two-yea.-streak built by the graduated Bill Russell & Co. for an all-time winning record of 60, the Dons now have lost three in a row, the last two in collegiate competition.

Western Kentucky, ranked 20th poll with a 3-1 record, tumbled the second-ranked Dons 61-57 Wednesin this week's Associated Press poll with a 3-1 record, tumbled the second-ranked Dons 61-57 Wednesday night.

On Monday, Illinois had put an official end to the winning record with a 62-33 thumping, although the Dons also had been beaten Saturday at Chicago. That defeat, however, was an unofficial "exhibition" setback by the U.S. Olympic champions — who included Russell and K. C. Jones, also an ex-Don.

The balance of power seems to have shifted on a conference basis as well. The Big 10, with Iowa, Illinois and Indiana; the Southeastern, with Kentucky and Alabama, and the Atlantic Coast, with North Carolina State and North Carolina, have been the powerhouses of relinois, Kentucky and North Carolina appear among the apparent cent years. But now only Illinois, Kentucky and North Carolina appear among the apparent rulers.

The Big Seven, meanwhile, looks to be back in business. Kansas, with Wilt the Stilt, is No. 1, and the conference also has unbeatens in Nebraska and Iowa State, and has a once-beaten darkhorse in Missouri.

Mizzou made it four in a row Wednesday night with a 59-52 job on Oregon. The Tigers lost their opener to Purdue by two points.

In the tournament picture, Wake Forest repeated as the Carrousel Classic champ by defeating Auburn 58-48 with Florida topping St. Joseph's (Pa) 86-72 for third.

The Quantico Marines bopped Hampden-Sydney 109-68 and Mt. St. Mary's (Md) trimmed Belmont Abbey 103-81 to gain tonight's final in the Quantico tourney.

Western Pro Team Picked For Big Tilt

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The composition of the west team that will meet the east in the all-National Professional League football game Sunday, Jan. 13 is now official.

The team, to be coached by Paddy Driscoll of the Chicago Bears, is ready-made for passing and the all-pro game usually is an aerial battle.

Driscoll won't decide on his starters until practice is well underway. The roster:

Offense—

Defense—

British Champion Floored by Webb

CHICAGO (AP) — For a fellow who had 44 fights, winning all but 2, Pat McAteer had plenty of unguarded moments Wednesday night in the Chicago Stadium ring.

The 24-year-old British Empire middleweight champion could hit with his left, but on defense it dangled helplessly and Spider Webb closed in to knock him down with rights four times.

Webb, also 24, finally ended the nationally televised bout by scoring a technical knockout in 2:32 of the second round.

Billy Haughton Wins U. S. Sulky Crown for 5th Time

COLUMBUS — William (Billy) Haughton of Brookville, N. Y., still considered a harness racing "youngster" at 33, continued to dominate the sport's race and money winning departments in 1956.

Haughton won the money title for the fifth consecutive year and the race winning crown for the fourth straight time, according to figures announced today by the U. S. Trotting Association.

The former farm hand's 1956 earnings were $572,945 and he won 167 heats. The totals in both instances were slightly under his own record breaking pace of 1955 when he banked $599,445 and won 168 races.

Haughton won th money title comfortably but his 167 wins barely withstood the late challenge of Stanley Dancer of New Egypt, N. J., who wound up with 163 victories.

Runnerup among the money winners was John F. Simpson of Maitland, Fla., who earned $455,301. Two other drivers topped the $400,000 mark, Dancer with $425,161 and Joe O'Brien of Shafter, Cal., with $422,618. It was the first time that more than two drivers had earned in excess of $400,000 in a single year.

In the race-winning column William D. (Bud) Gilmour of Ridgeway, Ontario, Canada was third with 139 wins, 24 more than he had in 1955 when he finished in the same place. Joe Lighthill of Troy, Ohio, was fourth with 121 and Louis Rapone of Caledonia, N. Y., fifth with 116.

Haughton campaigned principally at the metropolitan New York raceways, Yonkers and Roosevelt, but also made side excursions to tracks in all other parts of the country. His principal money winners were the 3-year-old pacers Bachelor Hanover and Belle Acton who collected $80,375 and $75,495 respectively and the aged pacer Duane Hanover who banked $78,663.

There was only one change in the ranks of the top ten money winners. Eddie Cobb of Washington C. H., Ohio, jumped from 25th to 7th with earnings of $241,851 replacing Clint Hodgins.

Four other Ohio ns were among the top 24 money winners. They were James Cruise of Mt. Vernon who ranked 13th, Wayne Smart of Delaware, 17th; Howard Beissinger, 19th; and Lighthill, 23rd.

Fighter Says Aragon Offers Bribe for Dive

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Welterweight fighters Dick Goldstein and Art Aragon, whom Goldstein charged tried to bribe him to take a "dive," took lie detector tests Wednesday night.

Results were not expected to be known for a week.

The state boxing commission started an investigation.

Goldstein testified at a commission hearing Aragon, third-ranked welter, tried to bribe him to throw a fight Tuesday night.

Goldstein said he was threatened with death if he didn't take a "dive" in the third round.

Aragon denied any such deal.

Both appeared eager to take the lie detector test.

The fight never came off. Aragon called in Dr. C. D. Henry, state boxing commission doctor, who said Aragon had a reddened throat and a slight fever.

Goldstein testified Aragon approached him Dec. 7 and promised him a fight in San Antonio if he would agree to "take a dive." Goldstein said he agreed, but denied intending to go through with what he called "the fix."

Aragon testified the only thing resembling Goldstein's testimony was the Goldstein had admitted he was afraid and Aragon had told him, "if you get knocked down and hurt, just stay down. Don't play the hero."

Aragon accused Goldstein of bringing the charges for publicity.

Russell Signs Celtics Contract

BOSTON (AP) — All America Bill Russell has signed a one - year contract for a reported $17,000 with the Boston Celtics, but the incomparable Bob Cousy still reigns as the highest-paid player in the National Basketball Assn.

Celtics owner Walter Brown declined to disclose the terms of Russell's contract after signing ceremonies Wednesday, but said flatly the former University of San Francisco and Olympic star will not receive as much as Cousy who is believed to be drawing about $22,000 a year.

Durable Dribbler Covers 22 Miles

WOOSTER (AP)—Wooster College doesn't have a title-winning basketball team this season, but it has a durable dribbler.

Proof of this came after sophomore Bruce Keene of McKeesport, Pa., declared he could dribble a basketball nonstop from the city limits of Wooster to those of Massillon.

His teammates took him upon that and raised a prize of $46.

Four hours and 57 minutes later, Keene dribbled into Massillon. The trip almost wore out a new basketball and averaged 104 dribbles for each of the 22 miles.

6 Players Sign With Browns '11'

CLEVELAND (AP) — Six players have been signed for 1957 by the Cleveland Browns whose 1956 season was the worst in the history of the team.

Those signed, all notable for their youth, are back Preston Carpenter, tackle Don Goss, guard Jim Ray Smith and center Art Hunter, all on the squad this season; and Tackle Fred Robinson, who spent the season in Canada; and Bill Quinlan, a 1956 draftee still in the armed forces.

Iowa Coach Says Rose Foe To Be Tough

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Big Ten holds a 9-to-1 edge over the Pacific Coast Conference since their Rose Bowl pact was signed, but coach Forest Evashevski of Iowa says he isn't underestimating Oregon State College.

OSC is the Hawkeyes' opponent in Pasadena Jan. 1. Earlier in the season Iowa beat the Beavers at Iowa City, 14-13, and had to come from behind to do it.

"We expect plenty of opposition. Year in and out, PCC teams are just as good as those in the Big Ten, although I would say that our conference probably has better balance," Evashevski said.

"Usually, however, UCLA, Southern California, Stanford and occasionally a Northwest team can battle any Big Ten team on even terms."

The Iowa coach ventured the opinion after driving his squad through a workout at East Los Angeles Junior College Stadium. The Hawkeyes toured Disneyland, and met their OSC opponents, who also were guests of Walt Disney.

The Beavers had a morning workout Wednesday, but no heavy practice.

"We're going to have to adjust ourselves to this good weather," said coach Tommy Prothro at the OSC camp at Santa Monica. "We've been enduring lots of rain and it has been chilly. It was 76 here Wednesday. However, I guess Iowa has the same problem."

The only tickets to the Rose Bowl game for the general public were placed on sale Wednesday in Pasadena. There were 3,500 of them and they were gone in about 75 minutes.

Ex-Rams Star Claims Bonus Paid to 'Get' Quarterback

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Does professional football condone roughness against key players and is there a monetary reward for knocking them out of the game?

A former Los Anwes Ram star, who declines use of his name, says that from 1951 through 1953, every quarterback in the National Football League was a target "and the guy who got the quarterback out of the game got a jackpot that we all donated to."

"But that doesn't mean we warted the quarterback out of there illegally," the player told Times football writer Jack Geyer. "It was just real good hard tackling to put him on his back. The coaches were aware of it."

Jumbo Joe Stydahar was coaching the Rams in 1951 but was succeeded by Hampton Pool. Pool was unavailable for comment.

The player pools, the former Ram said, usually ran about $40, "with each player putting in a buck or so."

"I don't recall of any player being knocked out of a game, but there were many instances of a lineman getting a small bonus every time he put the quarterback on his back."

Several players who were with the Rams in the early '50s denied the existence of such pools.

"In my eight years with the Rams there never has been any effort to hurt someone illegally," said star end Elroy (Crazylegs) Hirsch. "I can say in all honesty that if a team has a key player such as Bobby Layne of Detroit, another club will put on an added effort to stop him."

Hirsch said he knew of no money rewards. Nearly all his service with the Rams has been with the offensive unit, however.

In Los Angeles, Tex Schramm, general manager of the Rams, said he had not heard of a player pool for taking care of opposing quarterbacks "aid if we had, we wouldn't condone it."

Kent State Cage Coach Quits Job

KENT (AP)—Dave McDowell quit as basketball coach of Kent State University after his Golden Flashes lost to the Michigan Wolverines Wednesday night 100-60.

The 35-year-old McDowell's plan to quit was confirmed a few hours before the game by athletic director Trevor Rees.

For the rest of the season, the Kent team will be handled by Carl Chestnutt, assistant basketball coach; and Dick Kotis, freshman cage coach, Rees said.

Kent's loss to Michigan was its sixth in seven starts, its only victory being over Earlham.

Frisco Cagers Taste Defeat For 3rd Time

Famous Dons Quintet No Longer Able To Show Winning Form

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two years ago San Francisco's Dons came quietly out of the West and took college basketball by storm. Now this season's club, doomed from the start, is on the last leg of a dreary trip through the Midwest, facing a rebuilding job for the future.

After adding five victories to the two-yea.-streak built by the graduated Bill Russell & Co. for an all-time winning record of 60, the Dons now have lost three in a row, the last two in collegiate competition.

Western Kentucky, ranked 20th poll with a 3-1 record, tumbled the second-ranked Dons 61-57 Wednesin this week's Associated Press poll with a 3-1 record, tumbled the second-ranked Dons 61-57 Wednesday night.

On Monday, Illinois had put an official end to the winning record with a 62-33 thumping, although the Dons also had been beaten Saturday at Chicago. That defeat, however, was an unofficial "exhibition" setback by the U.S. Olympic champions — who included Russell and K. C. Jones, also an ex-Don.

The balance of power seems to have shifted on a conference basis as well. The Big 10, with Iowa, Illinois and Indiana; the Southeastern, with Kentucky and Alabama, and the Atlantic Coast, with North Carolina State and North Carolina, have been the powerhouses of relinois, Kentucky and North Carolina appear among the apparent cent years. But now only Illinois, Kentucky and North Carolina appear among the apparent rulers.

The Big Seven, meanwhile, looks to be back in business. Kansas, with Wilt the Stilt, is No. 1, and the conference also has unbeatens in Nebraska and Iowa State, and has a once-beaten darkhorse in Missouri.

Mizzou made it four in a row Wednesday night with a 59-52 job on Oregon. The Tigers lost their opener to Purdue by two points.

In the tournament picture, Wake Forest repeated as the Carrousel Classic champ by defeating Auburn 58-48 with Florida topping St. Joseph's (Pa) 86-72 for third.

The Quantico Marines bopped Hampden-Sydney 109-68 and Mt. St. Mary's (Md) trimmed Belmont Abbey 103-81 to gain tonight's final in the Quantico tourney.

British Champion Floored by Webb

CHICAGO (AP) — For a fellow who had 44 fights, winning all but 2, Pat McAteer had plenty of unguarded moments Wednesday night in the Chicago Stadium ring.

The 24-year-old British Empire middleweight champion could hit with his left, but on defense it dangled helplessly and Spider Webb closed in to knock him down with rights four times.

Webb, also 24, finally ended the nationally televised bout by scoring a technical knockout in 2:32 of the second round.

Billy Haughton Wins U. S. Sulky Crown for 5th Time

COLUMBUS — William (Billy) Haughton of Brookville, N. Y., still considered a harness racing "youngster" at 33, continued to dominate the sport's race and money winning departments in 1956.

Haughton won the money title for the fifth consecutive year and the race winning crown for the fourth straight time, according to figures announced today by the U. S. Trotting Association.

The former farm hand's 1956 earnings were $572,945 and he won 167 heats. The totals in both instances were slightly under his own record breaking pace of 1955 when he banked $599,445 and won 168 races.

Haughton won the money title comfortably but his 167 wins barely withstood the late challenge of Stanley Dancer of New Egypt, N. J., who wound up with 163 victories.

Runnerup among the money winners was John F. Simpson of Maitland, Fla., who earned $455,301. Two other drivers topped the $400,000 mark, Dancer with $425,161 and Joe O'Brien of Shafter, Cal., with $422,618. It was the first time that more than two drivers had earned in excess of $400,000 in a single year.

In the race-winning column, William D. (Bud) Gilmour of Ridgeway, Ontario, Canada was third with 139 wins, 24 more than he had in 1955 when he finished in the same place. Joe Lighthill of Troy, Ohio, was fourth with 121 and Louis Rapone of Caledonia, N. Y., fifth with 116.

Haughton campaigned principally at the metropolitan New York raceways, Yonkers and Roosevelt, but also made side excursions to tracks in all other parts of the country. His principal money winners were the 3-year-old pacers Bachelor Hanover and Belle Acton who collected $80,375 and $75,495 respectively and the aged pacer Duane Hanover who banked $78,663.

There was only one change in the ranks of the top ten money winners. Eddie Cobb of Washington C. H., Ohio, jumped from 25th to 7th with earnings of $241,851 replacing Clint Hodgins.

Four other Ohioans were among the top 24 money winners. They were James Cruise of Mt. Vernon who ranked 13th, Wayne Smart of Delaware, 17th; Howard Beissinger, 19th; and Lighthill, 23rd.

Fighter Says Aragon Offers Bribe for Dive

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Welterweight fighters Dick Goldstein and Art Aragon, whom Goldstein charged tried to bribe him to take a "dive," took lie detector tests Wednesday night.

Results were not expected to be known for a week.

The state boxing commission started an investigation.

Goldstein testified at a commission hearing Aragon, third-ranked welter, tried to bribe him to throw a fight Tuesday night.

Goldstein said he was threatened with death if he didn't take a "dive" in the third round.

Aragon denied any such deal.

Both appeared eager to take the lie detector test.

The fight never came off. Aragon called in Dr. C. D. Henry, state boxing commission doctor, who said Aragon had a reddened throat and a slight fever.

Goldstein testified Aragon approached him Dec. 7 and promised him a fight in San Antonio if he would agree to "take a dive." Goldstein said he agreed, but denied intending to go through with what he called "the fix."

Aragon testified the only thing resembling Goldstein's testimony was the Goldstein had admitted he was afraid and Aragon had told him, "if you get knocked down and hurt, just stay down. Don't play the hero."

Aragon accused Goldstein of bringing the charges for publicity.

Russell Signs Celtics Contract

BOSTON (AP) — All America Bill Russell has signed a one - year contract for a reported $17,000 with the Boston Celtics, but the incomparable Bob Cousy still reigns as the highest-paid player in the National Basketball Assn.

Celtics owner Walter Brown declined to disclose the terms of Russell's contract after signing ceremonies Wednesday, but said flatly the former University of San Francisco and Olympic star will not receive as much as Cousy who is believed to be drawing about $22,000 a year.

Durable Dribbler Covers 22 Miles

WOOSTER (AP)—Wooster College doesn't have a title-winning basketball team this season, but it has a durable dribbler.

Proof of this came after sophomore Bruce Keene of McKeesport, Pa., declared he could dribble a basketball nonstop from the city limits of Wooster to those of Massillon.

His teammates took him upon that and raised a prize of $46.

Four hours and 57 minutes later, Keene dribbled into Massillon. The trip almost wore out a new basketball and averaged 104 dribbles for each of the 22 miles.

6 Players Sign With Browns '11'

CLEVELAND (AP) — Six players have been signed for 1957 by the Cleveland Browns whose 1956 season was the worst in the history of the team.

Those signed, all notable for their youth, are back Preston Carpenter, tackle Don Goss, guard Jim Ray Smith and center Art Hunter, all on the squad this season; and Tackle Fred Robinson, who spent the season in Canada; and Bill Quinlan, a 1956 draftee still in the armed forces.

Iowa Coach Says Rose Foe To Be Tough

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Big Ten holds a 9-to-1 edge over the Pacific Coast Conference since their Rose Bowl pact was signed, but coach Forest Evashevski of Iowa says he isn't underestimating Oregon State College.

OSC is the Hawkeyes' opponent in Pasadena Jan. 1. Earlier in the season Iowa beat the Beavers at Iowa City, 14-13, and had to come from behind to do it.

"We expect plenty of opposition. Year in and out, PCC teams are just as good as those in the Big Ten, although I would say that our conference probably has better balance," Evashevski said.

"Usually, however, UCLA, Southern California, Stanford and occasionally a Northwest team can battle any Big Ten team on even terms."

The Iowa coach ventured the opinion after driving his squad through a workout at East Los Angeles Junior College Stadium. The Hawkeyes toured Disneyland, and met their OSC opponents, who also were guests of Walt Disney.

The Beavers had a morning workout Wednesday, but no heavy practice.

"We're going to have to adjust ourselves to this good weather," said coach Tommy Prothro at the OSC camp at Santa Monica. "We've been enduring lots of rain and it has been chilly. It was 76 here Wednesday. However, I guess Iowa has the same problem."

The only tickets to the Rose Bowl game for the general public were placed on sale Wednesday in Pasadena. There were 3,500 of them and they were gone in about 75 minutes.

Kent State Cage Coach Quits Job

KENT (AP)—Dave McDowell quit as basketball coach of Kent State University after his Golden Flashes lost to the Michigan Wolverines Wednesday night 100-60.

The 35-year-old McDowell's plan to quit was confirmed a few hours before the game by athletic director Trevor Rees.

For the rest of the season, the Kent team will be handled by Carl Chestnutt, assistant basketball coach; and Dick Kotis, freshman cage coach, Rees said.

Kent's loss to Michigan was its sixth in seven starts, its only victory being over Earlham.

Ex-Rams Star Claims Bonus Paid to 'Get' Quarterback

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Does professional football condone roughness against key players and is there a monetary reward for knocking them out of the game?

A former Los Anwes Ram star, who declines use of his name, says that from 1951 through 1953, every quarterback in the National Football League was a target "and the guy who got the quarterback out of the game got a jackpot that we all donated to."

"But that doesn't mean we warted the quarterback out of there illegally," the player told Times football writer Jack Geyer. "It was just real good hard tackling to put him on his back. The coaches were aware of it."

Jumbo Joe Stydahar was coaching the Rams in 1951 but was succeeded by Hampton Pool. Pool was unavailable for comment.

The player pools, the former Ram said, usually ran about $40, "with each player putting in a buck or so."

"I don't recall of any player being knocked out of a game, but there were many instances of a lineman getting a small bonus every time he put the quarterback on his back."

Several players who were with the Rams in the early '50s denied the existence of such pools.

"In my eight years with the Rams there never has been any effort to hurt someone illegally," said star end Elroy (Crazylegs) Hirsch. "I can say in all honesty that if a team has a key player such as Bobby Layne of Detroit, another club will put on an added effort to stop him."

Hirsch said he knew of no money rewards. Nearly all his service with the Rams has been with the offensive unit, however.

In Los Angeles, Tex Schramm, general manager of the Rams, said he had not heard of a player pool for taking care of opposing quarterbacks "aid if we had, we wouldn't condone it."

To begin with, there will be his discovery of Cadillac's brilliant new performance. The car is so smooth and responsive that it will be a revelation.

Then, as he takes the sweep of the boulevard, there will be the added thrill of those admiring glances that will come from his fellow motorists.

And how satisfying it will be to find that Cadillac owners themselves have a special affection for the man who rides in the new "car of cars".

And finally, of course, there will be the joy of that wonderful "welcome home" as he turns into the familiar driveway and comes to a silken stop.

For a new 1957 Cadillac is the prize of any family . . . and the pride of any neighborhood!

* * *

Why not come in soon for a preview of this thrilling experience? We have a 1957 Cadillac waiting in our showroom—and we will be happy to give you a personal demonstration at any time.

Whether it's to be your first or your second—or your fifth or your tenth Cadillac—you're in for a wonderful surprise!

White Army Sergeant OKs NAACP Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—A white Army Sergeant and the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People were lined up today with two Negroes who claim two off-duty policemen brutally beat them because they were drinking with the white.

Army Sgt. John Coleman told an investigating officer the two patrolmen tried to start a fight because he and the Negroes were drinking together in a cafe. He said he left the cafe after one patrolman hit him.

Th NAACP challenged the patrolmen, Peter J. Hotz and Edward Shaniuk, to take lie detector tests about their statements that the Negroes attacked them.

The Negores, Rober Barbee, 30, and Army Sgt. Herman Humphries, 26, said the patrolmen took them to the police station and beat them to the floor while other police looked on. They were charged with assault and battery and intoxication.

Hotz and Shaniuk have been charged with neglect of duty and Safety Director John N. McCormich said they would be further charged with conduct unbecoming police officers.

553 To Get Diplomas at OSU Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A graduating class of 553 will step to the rostrum to receive their diplomas today at Ohio State University's in the school's new St. John arena.

Among the graduates are John V. Hudson, Highland Park, Mich., blind since 1939, who will receive a doctor of philosophy degree "summa cum laude;" and Donald I. Johnson, New London, who is to be posthumously, awarded a degree in aeronautical engineering. Johnson died Nov. 10 at the age of 23.

Heading the list of 21 OSU seniors who will be graduated with high scholastic honors are two Air Force officers—both combat veterans.

They are Maj. Robert E. Georgas, Salina, Kan., a veteran of Guam, Iwo Jima and Korea; and Capt. Joseph A. Smith, Jr., Goldsboro, N. C., a B-17 pilot in the European theater of operations during World War II.

Georges, 35, is a general business major, and Smith, 32, majored in accounting.

New Truck Expands 5 Times in Size

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A 14-ton aluminum truck that expands to more than five times its on-the-road dimensions at the touch of a button is being demonstrated by the Aluminum Co of America.

In its "closed" position, the truck-trailer looks like any other of the commonly used "semis." But press a button and in a scant five minutes the inside area of 150 square feet is transformed into an area of 780 square feet.

Manufactured by the Gerstenslager Co. of Wooster, Ohio, the trailer will find use as a service vehicle for the armed forces or traveling exhibit housing for industry.

White Army Sergeant OKs NAACP Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—A white Army Sergeant and the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People were lined up today with two Negroes who claim two off-duty policemen brutally beat them because they were drinking with the white.

Army Sgt. John Coleman told an investigating officer the two patrolmen tried to start a fight because he and the Negroes were drinking together in a cafe. He said he left the cafe after one patrolman hit him.

Th NAACP challenged the patrolmen, Peter J. Hotz and Edward Shaniuk, to take lie detector tests about their statements that the Negroes attacked them.

The Negores, Rober Barbee, 30, and Army Sgt. Herman Humphries, 26, said the patrolmen took them to the police station and beat them to the floor while other police looked on. They were charged with assault and battery and intoxication.

Hotz and Shaniuk have been charged with neglect of duty and Safety Director John N. McCormich said they would be further charged with conduct unbecoming police officers.

553 To Get Diplomas at OSU Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A graduating class of 553 will step to the rostrum to receive their diplomas today at Ohio State University's in the school's new St. John arena.

Among the graduates are John V. Hudson, Highland Park, Mich., blind since 1939, who will receive a doctor of philosophy degree "summa cum laude;" and Donald I. Johnson, New London, who is to be posthumously, awarded a degree in aeronautical engineering. Johnson died Nov. 10 at the age of 23.

Heading the list of 21 OSU seniors who will be graduated with high scholastic honors are two Air Force officers—both combat veterans.

They are Maj. Robert E. Georgas, Salina, Kan., a veteran of Guam, Iwo Jima and Korea; and Capt. Joseph A. Smith, Jr., Goldsboro, N. C., a B-17 pilot in the European theater of operations during World War II.

Georges, 35, is a general business major, and Smith, 32, majored in accounting.

New Truck Expands 5 Times in Size

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A 14-ton aluminum truck that expands to more than five times its on-the-road dimensions at the touch of a button is being demonstrated by the Aluminum Co of America.

In its "closed" position, the truck-trailer looks like any other of the commonly - used "semis." But press a button and in a scant five minutes the inside area of 150 square feet is transformed into an area of 780 square feet.

Manufactured by the Gerstenslager Co. of Wooster, Ohio, the trailer will find use as a service vehicle for the armed forces or traveling exhibit housing for industry.

Israeli Leader Seeks Help in U. S.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mrs. Golda Meir, foreign minister of Israel, said here that her country, with the help of American Jews, can become a "model" for the entire Middle East.

She told a Bonds-for-Israel dinner that the Israelis have been terrorized by the Arab states since this day the nation was established in 1948.

"With your help the country we have sought to find for centuries will develop and its people will live without fear," she said.

The 58-year-old widow said that Israel "watched President Nasser build up Egyptian air and sea power and point for the day when he could destroy us."

Rhinoceros "horn" is actually tightly-massed hair.

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Israeli Leader Seeks Help in U. S.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mrs. Golda Meir, foreign minister of Israel, said here that her country, with the help of American Jews, can become a "model" for the entire Middle East.

She told a Bonds-for-Israel dinner that the Israelis have been terrorized by the Arab states since the day the nation was established in 1948.

"With your help the country we have sought to find for centuries will develop and its people will live without fear," she said.

The 58-year-old widow said that Israel "watched President Nasser build up Egyptian air and sea power and point for the day when he could destroy us."

Rhinoceros "horn" is actually tightly-massed hair.

'56 Ohio Farm Crop Value Shows Decline

Ag Department Tally Shows $8 Million Drop From 1955's Total

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Agriculture Department said today that 1956 farm crops in Ohio had a total value of more than $8 million less than in 1955.

This was not the trend for the nation as a whole where this year's total showed a light gain over last year.

The total for 1956 in Ohio was $610,951,000 compared to $619,386,000 for 1955.

Nationwide, the total for 1956 was $18,973,732,000 compared to a total of $18,575,494,000 for 1955.

These figures did not include the value of livestock and livestock products.

Corn easily held it traditional spot as the top money crop. It was valued at $4,571,274,000 this year, compared with $4,360,633,000 for the 1955 crop.

Cotton, including cottonseed, was second with a value of $2,444,053,000 compared with $2,648,293,000 last year.

* * *

HAY WAS THIRD at $2,302,100,000 compared with $2,342,230,000 last year.

The values of 1956 and 1955 crops, respectively, in states other than Ohio were: Indiana $710,958,000 and $658,194,000; Michigan $441,515,000 and $404,419,000; West Virginia $58,798,000 and $54,938,000; Kentucky $414,276,000 and $379,420,000.

The Agriculture Department has forecast next year's winter wheat crop at 624,953,000 bushels based on conditions prevailing Dec. 1.

Such a crop would be 110,042,000 bushels less than this year's production of 734,995,000 bushels and would compare with the 1945-54 average of 873,690,000.

The accumulation of more than a million bushels surpluses from past big crops assures consumers ample supplies.

The forecast was limited to fall-sown winter wheat. No prediction on spring wheat will be given until after the crop is seeded next spring.

But should the spring wheat crop equal this year's 222 million bushels, next year's combined winter and spring crops would total 846,953,000 bushels. This year's combined crop was 997,207,000 bushels and the 10-year average 1,148,289,000.

* * *

THE DEPARTMENT estimated the acreage seed to winter wheat for all purposes totaled 36,778,000 acres compared with 44,503,000 for this year's crop.

Some of the reduction in seedings reflected agreements to take some land out of production under the new soil bank program which offers payments for retirement of land from surplus crops.

The acreage seeded for winter wheat for the 1957 crop, the percentage this represents of seedings for the 1956 crop and the indicated production, respectively, in Ohio is 1,444,000 acres seeded; 90 per cent of seedings for this year's crop and production 37,544,000 bushels.

'56 Ohio Farm Crop Value Shows Decline

Ag Department Tally Shows $8 Million Drop From 1955's Total

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today that 1956 farm crops in Ohio had a total value of more than $8 million less than in 1955.

This was not the trend for the nation as a whole where this year's total showed a light gain over last year.

The total for 1956 in Ohio was $610,951,000 compared to $619,386,000 for 1955.

Nationwide, the total for 1956 was $18,973,732,000 compared to a total of $18,575,494,000 for 1955.

These figures did not include the value of livestock and livestock products.

Corn easily held its traditional spot as the top money crop. It was valued at $4,571,274,000 this year, compared with $4,360,633,000 for the 1955 crop.

Cotton, including cottonseed, was second with a value of $2,444,053,000 compared with $2,648,293,000 last year.

* * *

HAY WAS THIRD at $2,302,100,000 compared with $2,342,230,000 last year.

The values of 1956 and 1955 crops, respectively, in states other than Ohio were: Indiana $710,958,000 and $658,194,000; Michigan $441,515,000 and $404,419,000; West Virginia $58,798,000 and $54,938,000; Kentucky $414,276,000 and $379,420,000.

The Agriculture Department has forecast next year's winter wheat crop at 624,953,000 bushels based on conditions prevailing Dec. 1.

Such a crop would be 110,042,000 bushels less than this year's production of 734,995,000 bushels and would compare with the 1945-54 average of 873,690,000.

The accumulation of more than a million bushels surpluses from past big crops assures consumers ample supplies.

The forecast was limited to fall-sown winter wheat. No prediction on spring wheat will be given until after the crop is seeded next spring.

But should the spring wheat crop equal this year's 222 million bushels, next year's combined winter and spring crops would total 846,953,000 bushels. This year's combined crop was 997,207,000 bushels and the 10-year average 1,148,289,000.

* * *

THE DEPARTMENT estimated the acreage seed to winter wheat for all purposes totaled 36,778,000 acres compared with 44,503,000 for this year's crop.

Some of the reduction in seedings reflected agreements to take some land out of production under the new soil bank program which offers payments for retirement of land from surplus crops.

The acreage seeded for winter wheat for the 1957 crop, the percentage this represents of seedings for the 1956 crop and the indicated production, respectively, in Ohio is 1,444,000 acres seeded; 90 per cent of seedings for this year's crop and production 37,544,000 bushels.
